SERVICES HELD FOR DR. WILSON

Heart Attack After Collision Proves Fatal To Retired Physician

Funeral services were held from the residence at 753 Willis street Sunday afternoon for Dr. Harold Wilson, past president of the Wayne County Medical Society and for 50 years a practicing physician in Detroit.

Dr. Wilson, who was 72 years old, died Friday night when seized with a heart attack following a minor accident at the corner of Greenwood and Harmon avenues. He was driving a car which collided with another, driven by R. H. Wilson, past of 620 Lakeside drive. Although no one was injured and neither car was damaged, the two drivers got out and were taking each other's names when Dr. Wilson collapsed. He was taken to St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, but was dead on admission.

He came to Birmingham when he retired from active practice four years ago. He had been a partner of Dr. Roy W. Hittchcock in the David Whitney Building, Detroit, and previous to that time had shared office for several years with the father of Hugh W. Hittchcock of 839 Randall court.

He was a man of tremendous energy and talent, he was an accomplished amateur in numerous fields of endeavor. He played several musical instruments, including a cello which he made himself, had composed several songs and other pieces, and had written plays. About two years before his death he had turned his attention to art and had produced many drawings and paintings. He was a prodigious reader and a thorough student of every subject which arrested his imagination.

He was a member of the Detroit Athletic Club, the Prismatic Club, the American College of Surgery and the American Medical Society. He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. James Morgan of Hollywood, Cal. and Mrs. Marion Toivola of Chicago. Also Mrs. Louis Comstock of Upper Mont Clair, N. J.

The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector of Christ Church Cranbrook, officiated at the services. The body was cremated at White Chapel Memorial Cemetery.

Avoids Auto Crash, Rams 3 Gas Pumps

Several persons escaped possible serious injury Sunday night in an unusual accident at a gas station on Woodward avenue at Oak street.

When a car driven by Bernice Sparrow, 2806 Ardmore drive, Royal Oak, travelling south on Woodward, skidded to the left, it caused Mike Noone of the Bloomfield Hills Country Club, who was driving north, to turn into the station to avoid a collision.

Noone's car crashed into the three gasoline pumps. One of them broke off and fell on a car parked at the station in charge of Charles Richwitz, 13491 Liberty avenue, Detroit. Noone's car also crashed into that of Richwitz.

America is Unprepared When Forced To Play Leading Role, Speaker Declares

America is a great, adolescent, overgrown nation which, at the time of the World War, was plunged almost overnight into a position of leadership among the nations of the world, and was unprepared for the role.

At the concert here, she will play the Mendelssohn Concerto in G Minor with the orchestra, last year, when the orchestra made its first Birmingham appearance at a concert in the Community House.

Another soloist will be Carl Lindgren, head of the vocal department at the Ypsilanti Conservatory, who will sing a basso solo, "O Tu Palermo" from "I Vespri Siciliani".

The organization's 1933 season was climaxed by a trip to Minneapolis where it appeared in Northrup Auditorium before the convention of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

The concert here is being sponsored by the Women's Society of the First Methodist Church, with Mrs. D. L. Tate as general chairman.

EMMY ADAMS TO PLAY HERE

Violinist Will Again Be Soloist With Ypsilanti Normal Symphony

When the Ypsilanti Normal Symphony Orchestra returns to Birmingham Mar. 9 for a concert by the First Methodist Church, one of the soloists will again be the concert master, Emily Mutter Adams.

Mrs. Adams is a protegee of Frederick Fiedler, conductor of the Chicago Symphony Orchestra, and has appeared as soloist with that organization. She has been a student of the Community House concert master of the Chicago Orchestra, and later of Sevcik, Sckelnick, Bieszkynski and Michael Press.

With pomp and military routine befitting the event, the new Birmingham Post, No. 2645, of the Veterans of Foreign Wars was instituted in public ceremonies Tuesday night in the Community House.

The 36 charter members of the organization were obligated by Edward J. Lerch, state commander of the V. F. W., who turned the charter and gavel of the new post over to its commander, R. C. Spencer.

Purely Personal

Draper Allen is one of the vice-presidents of the recently organized Franklin D. Roosevelt Club of Oakland County.

That was a fine tribute the audience paid to Arnold Berndt at the Father and Son service in the Methodist Church Sunday afternoon when he got up to lead the Baldwin High Orchestra.

Mrs. Irwin Kelly makes great goulash. Jack Hollister had a swell time leading Carl Rupp's band at an early Father and Son Club dance in the Community House last week.

Wonder why John Black always wears blue? Charles Whelan doesn't believe it makes any difference who the best-looking woman in Birmingham is, and she has no reason to be jealous, either.

Tip to the Village Players—have George Raynald sing "The Man of the Flying Trapes" in his seven acts at an early Father and Son Club dance in the Community House last week.

Never saw Mrs. Olga Benning laugh so much as she did at the principal speaker's stories at the banquet in Pontiac the other night.

Dr. Hugo Erichsen is anxious to see "Alice in Wonderland" on the screen. He was ill when it came around the first time.

Wonder if Luther Heacock would like for the city to buy again this spring? Mrs. Gordon Bailey seemed to enjoy herself at the V. F. W. banquet the other night.

F. V. W. POST GETS CHARTER

36 Members Enrolled, Officers Installed At Public Ceremonies

The 36 charter members of the organization were obligated by Edward J. Lerch, state commander of the V. F. W., who turned the charter and gavel of the new post over to its commander, R. C. Spencer.

The ceremony was conducted by the state champion degree team of the Wolverine Post of Redford. Boland J. Vandenberg, state junior vice-commander, presided at the meeting.

Mr. Lerch outlined the purpose of the V. F. W., which was first organized in 1899, and urged service men to abandon their "inferiority complex" and crusade for Education, improved living conditions and the right to the land.

Installed as officers of the new post, besides Mr. Spencer, were commander, F. W. Nieder, Jerome P. Rowley, senior vice-commander, O. W. Richards, junior vice-commander, F. W. Nieder, Edward J. Appell, Fred Samuelson and E. J. Fichte, trustees.

Other charter members are Earl B. Biss, Joseph F. MacGregor, Arthur L. Kruger, Fred Effe, John H. Stover, John F. Dunn, Danne R. Burks, William Luther, Charles M. Colson, M. F. Fitzgibbon, John R. Matire, Ray Bethard, Morris Garrett, Henry Shortridge, Edward W. Mathis, Floyd Crouse, Joseph Gillings, Rector I. Kitchin, Frank E. Stermal, Fred Wilson, George Thomas, Walter Bessner, Edwin S. Minks, L. Hoffman and L. J. Marcotte.

The speaker will be Wednesday night at 8:30 P. M. next Wednesday. The speaker will be George E. Spaulder, Detroit contractor who sponsors a trip to Alaska each year for from 50 to 100 boys. His talk will be illustrated with motion pictures.

APPEALS CONVICTION, PLEADS GUILTY AGAIN After appealing a Circuit Court from a conviction for drunk driving for which he was arrested in Birmingham Aug. 19, 1933, Edward Spaulder, 25 years old, of 2344 Connor avenue, Hamtramck, again pleaded guilty when charged last Thursday before Circuit Judge Frank L. Covert in Pontiac.

Spaulder had served a few days in jail after pleading guilty to the charge. He was released on $100 or 90 days. He had been released on $100 bond pending his appeal.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY State Representative Melvin H. Lee, of Royal Oak: "I'm willing to bet that you know everything. Some members of the Legislature think they do."

Foe Of High Taxes Succumbs In South

Services Held Saturday For Karl N. Tibbitts, Native Of Southfield Township

Funeral services for Karl N. Tibbitts, Southfield Township farmer who attained wide prominence about three years ago for his opposition to mounting real estate taxes, were held Saturday afternoon from his residence at Twelve Mile and Tibbitts roads. Burial was in Franklin Cemetery.

Mr. Tibbitts died Feb. 12 in Ocala, Fla., where he had come two months before for his health. He was suffering from cancer.

Mr. Tibbitts, once the owner of considerable property, conducted a one-man campaign against a county road and other taxes which increased to such a point that he was threatened with the loss of his entire holdings. He erected huge signs of protest of his property, and finally retired to a single small plot of land which had been his birthplace and where his home stood at the time of his death.

He is survived by three sons, Duane, Arlino and Norwood, all of Southfield Township, a daughter, Mrs. Raymond Nelson of Lansing, and four grandsons.

Protection Against 'Floaters' Is Required

A request that the city require every resident to register his name, age, occupation, address, last place of residence and other details with the city clerk was refused Monday night by the City Commission.

The request was made in writing by John McCarroll, 431 Park street, who said the registration would serve as a guard against "floaters" settling in the city and moving suddenly to an unknown destination, leaving a trail of obligations behind them.

The Commission was unwilling to assume the extra expense such a registration would entail, and pointed out that the Credit Bureau collects some of this information concerning newcomers to the city.

LEAGUE WILL CONDUCT M. E. VESPER SERVICE

The regular 5 o'clock vesper service at the First Methodist Church next Sunday afternoon will be in charge of the young people of the Senior Epworth League. Three tables will be given as follows:

Following the service, the regular meeting of the Senior League will be held at the parsonage at 6:15 P. M.
