NORMAL STUDENTS TO GIVE PROGRAM

Musicals Will Hear Woodwind Ensemble From Ypsilanti State Normal College

When the Thursday Musicals meet at the Community House this afternoon, it will be to hear a program differing from the usual type. Guests on this occasion will be members of the woodwind ensemble of the Ypsilanti State Normal College, who will present the program, assisted by Maynard Klein, tenor, accompanied by Mrs. Clara McAndrews.

Members of the ensemble are: Miss Mary Reinhardt, flute; Kenneth Lowman, bassoon and bass clarinet; and Karl Parr and William Stewart, clarinets. A brief history of each of these instruments will be given by Mrs. Earl G. Potter.

Before the program, those taking part will be the luncheon guests of members of the program committee at the home of Mrs. William Lloyd Kemp of Ypsilanti road.

Mrs. Gerald J. McMechan is chairman of the committee, which also includes Mrs. F. W. Boynton, Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff, Mrs. William E. Brewster and Mrs. Thomas H. Corin. Other guests will include Mrs. Marius E. Fossekemper and Mrs. Potter.

Mrs. Charles J. Keppel and Mrs. P. A. Thompson of Cranbrook will be joint hostesses at luncheon Friday at the home of the former, in honor of Mrs. George W. Patch, who returned to Cranbrook recently from an extended visit in New York. Invitations have been issued to 20 guests.

Chorus Of 56 Voices To Be Heard In Oratorio "Elijah"

Cameron McLean Will Sing Role Of Prophet With Local Society

When the Birmingham Oratorio Society presents the oratorio "Elijah" at the First Baptist Church next Tuesday evening, Cameron McLean, noted baritone, will appear in the title role, supported by a chorus of 56 voices. Solo parts will be sung also by Thomas (Carl) Evans, tenor of St. Paul's Cathedral in Detroit; Miss Adelaide Lloyd of Pontiac, soprano and Mrs. Frederick A. Protheroe, contralto.

Under the direction of Frederick A. Protheroe, a member of the vocal department of the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, rehearsals have been in progress since Oct. 1. This oratorio is the first of a series to be presented by the Society, which organized recently with Mr. Protheroe as director and Mrs. Charles W. Crandell as president.

"Elijah" will be sung to the accompaniment of the organ, played by A. Shanley Rosso, and piano, played by Miss Elizabeth Heck.

Soprano of the chorus include: Mrs. L. G. Welch, Mrs. Russell Hardman, Mrs. L. H. Willson, Mrs. Frank Campbell, Mrs. John K. Ormont, Mrs. Henry Kothe, Mrs. M. A. Tyson, Mrs. R. D. ## NUPTIALS READ AT SIMPLE CEREMONY

Miss Mary Anderson, Formerly Of Scotland, Becomes Bride Of Birmingham Man

A simple wedding ceremony was performed at the First Methodist Church Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock when Miss Mary Anderson, daughter of John Anderson of Forfar, Angus, Scotland, and Roy Edward Webb, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Huffman of Wallace, Ala., were united in marriage. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. R. D. Hopkins in the presence of members of the family and a few close friends.

The bride was attended by Katharine Miller of Grosse Pointe and Leslie Walter of Birmingham, assisted by Mr. Webb as best man. A wedding reception for 20 guests at Huntington Inn followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Webb will be at the home of the bride at 2000 N. 1st, on their wedding journey.

Acting as hostess at the reception was Mrs. James Duncan of Ann Arbor, and the guests were Mrs. and Mrs. Duncan, Miss Mills Cory, also of Grosse Pointe, and Mrs. and Mrs. Hugh Summers of Dearborn. Mrs. Webb came to this country from Scotland four years ago, and has since made her home in Detroit. Prior to her wedding, she was the guest for several days of Mr. and Mrs. Huffman.
