Cranbrook Academy Announces Classes

The second term of the school year 1933-34 at the Cranbrook Academy of Art opened Tuesday, with classes in drawing, painting, sculpture and wood-carving.

Classes in drawing and painting on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays are being taught by Zoltan Sepeshy, and instruction in sculpture and wood-carving is being given by Marshall Fredericks on Wednesdays and Fridays.

These classes are part of the post graduate school of architecture and design of the Academy, and are available to the general public.

Admission as a regular student to the school is by competition, details of which may be obtained from the secretary.

In addition, Carl Miles, sculptor, is accepting a limited number of exceptional students in advanced sculpture.

FRANKLIN
Mrs. Lester Meade and son, Dick, are spending a few weeks in Bristol, Ill., at the home of Mrs. Meade's mother, Mrs. E. M. Bromley.

The Franklin School will reopen Monday after a two-weeks Christmas recess.

Miss Wilma Wood is a patient in Harper Hospital, where she underwent an appendicitis operation Wednesday.

Neal Spicer, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Spicer, who has been ill with pneumonia is improving.

Several Franklin young people enjoyed a New Year's Eve watch party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jennings Morse.

Miss Irene Koonce of Pontiac is the guest this week of Miss Ruth Wood.

Mrs. Robert Mason was hostess to members of the Y. K. W. Club Wednesday evening. The club's next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Rita Vey of Birmingham.

MAN, WIFE HURT WHEN CAR HITS SAFETY ZONE
Warren Pease, Jr., 1251 Buckingham road, and Mrs. Pease, both suffered facial cuts and bruises when a car, driven by the former, crashed into a safety zone on Woodland avenue near States Mile road on New Year's Eve. Mr. Pease was passing another car, travelling in the same direction, and fog prevented him from seeing the safety zone.

100 ATTEND REUNION
About 100 boys who have attended the Oakland County Y. M. C. A. Camp at Loon Lake, and their fathers, were present at the camp reunion held Saturday afternoon in the Community House. Motion pictures were shown, camp songs sung, and refreshments served.
