RETROTHAL NEWS ANNOUNCED AT TEA

Helen Mason And Tom Ellery To Wed In Early Fall

A romance in which Birmingham is justly showing considerable interest is that concerning Miss Helen Houghton Mason, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stevens Thompson Mason of Vendome road, Grosse Pointe, and Harold Thomas Ellery, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Ellery of Adams road.

At a tea for 30 guests Saturday afternoon Mrs. Mason announced the engagement of her daughter to Mr. Ellery. Their wedding is to be an event of the early fall.

Both of the young couple were graduated from the University of Michigan last month, and both were active in campus affairs. Miss Mason is a member of Collegiate Sorosis and was interested in dramatics. Ellery, whose fraternity is Phi Kappa Psi, was captain of the track team in his senior year, a member of Michiganma, honorary senior society, and a member of the Honor Guard for commencement.

Miss Mason attended the Grosse Pointe Country Day School, and studied languages in Florence, Italy, before entering the University. Miss Mason is a descendant of Stevens Thompson Mason, first governor of Michigan.

Mr. Ellery came to Birmingham with his family from Hartford, Conn., and attended Baldwin High School before entering the University. His father is a former village president of Birmingham.
