VISITORS HONORED AT MANY AFFAIRS

Mr. Harvey Craig and Daughter Are Peppers at Many Illinois

Mr. Harvey A. Craig and her daughter, Daphne, of Winnetka, Ill., who arrived last Monday for a two-weeks' visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry Holmes and Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig, are the cause of quite a round of entertaining.

Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Craig gave a lawn party at their home, Oak Knob Farm in Bloomfield Hills, for the Perry Holmes' guest, Mr. Craig, and the same evening at the same place, Bob Craig, son of the Lyman Craig, gave a steak roast for Daphne.

Guests at the elder Craig's lawn party, besides Mr. and Mrs. Holmes and their guest, were Mr. and Mrs. Theodore F. Meyer of Midland avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Bratt of Lakeside drive, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Peters of Martell drive, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiley of Lakeview drive, the Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Anderson of Lone Pine road, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Caldwell of Mehegan drive.

Bob Craig's steak roast was a festive occasion for 20 of the younger set.

Wednesday, Miss Mary Ann Craig gave a luncheon for 15 young ladies in Miss Daphne's honor at the cool and chic Detroit Boat Club, and Mrs. Godfrey Strongler of Archer road, who chose the same day at Orchard Lake to entertain at a luncheon for Mrs. Craig, Mrs. Strongler's daughter, Nancy, is planning to feté Miss Daphne Craig, provided she is able to find a date which is not already booked for the popular visitor.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes are playing host to a few couples on Saturday evening at Orchard Lake for dinner and dancing to honor Mrs. Craig. Mrs. Edgar T. Coombs will give a luncheon at her home on Kennaw drive this Friday, and doubtless the second of the two weeks of Mrs. Craig's and her daughter's stay will be just as crowded with engagements as the first.

Western Visitor Inspires Endless Round of Parties

Young Hostesses Take Turns Entertaining at Hermine McCormick

Lovely Hermine McCormick, who is visiting Miss Elaine Cree of Mehegan drive at the present writing, has been the inspiration for such a round of dinner parties, teas and luncheons as this town has not seen in some time. And no wonder! For Miss McCormick, formerly lived in Birmingham, but the family moved to California about two years ago and Birmingham has not seen Hermine since until the time of this visit.

When she first arrived, bag and baggage, to spend the summer, Miss McCormick was the guest of Miss Beth Ranney, who lives on Wimbledon road. Miss Ranney gave a tea in her honor, to which she invited all of Hermine's old friends and also gave some who had never met the charming young guest of honor a chance to do so. A small dinner party given by Miss Cree was next, and then a slumber party for eight girls at Ranney's.

A group was organized an evening or two later to go to Westwood Symphony Gardens, a new place to Miss McCormick, as it opened only last summer. Dancing at Orchard Lake of a Saturday afternoon was in favor also, and a party which should have made Hermine feel much at home took place at the Bob-Cadillac in Detroit. All comers were requested to attend this amusing party, and as movie stars and funny or elaborate, their get-ups were intriguing.

Miss Wasey Entertains Last week-end Hermine spent with Eleanor Wasey at Barbour Terrace, where Eleanor lives when she is not in Ann Arbor at school. As a matter of fact, Miss Wasey is taking a summer school course, but she was able to leave her books for a week-end at home to see and entertain Miss McCormick.

Elaine Cree, with whom this popular young lady is staying this week, has not as yet divulged her plans for entertainment beyond daily swimming at Orchard

Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Farquhar of Lake Park drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Rumble of Bloomfield Village over the week-end at their cottage near Gaylord, Mich. Mr. and Mrs. Farquhar left Wednesday for Chicago, where they will meet Mr. Farquhar's niece, Miss Frances Burnett, of Hempstead, Tex. They will return from Chicago and the World's Fair, with Miss Burnett, on Sunday.

Mrs. G. Dewey Kimball and son, Richard Dean, of Brown street, left Monday morning for Elk Rapids, where they are planning to spend a week.

Rotarians and Wives Hear World Traveler

The Birmingham Rotary Club held one of its "Ladies' Night" dinners and programs at the Fox and Hounds Monday evening, attended by 41 members of the club and their wives.

The speaker was Miss Imogene Warden, of Hollywood, Cal., who entertained her listeners for more than an hour with amusing and instructive descriptions of her travels through 25 foreign countries, all of which she explored without a guide.

Among the most entertaining incidents she related was that of representing herself a reporter for the New York Times in an attempt to interview an Irish peer. Unfortunately, the peer became suspicious and denied the interview when it was discovered that Warden carried neither pencil nor paper.

Club Notes
