SERVICES HELD FOR EDWARD PYLE, 76

Fractured Hip Brings Death To Insurance Company's District Manager

Funeral services for Edward Pyle, Detroit manager of the Preferred Accident Insurance Company of New York, were held Saturday afternoon from his residence here, 380 Hawthorne road, the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector & Christ Church Cranbrook, officiated, and burial was in Woodlawn Cemetery.

Although he was 76 years old, Mr. Pyle was active in business until last Dec. 15, when he slipped on the ice while entering a taxi in front of his home and suffered a fractured hip, from which complications developed. He was a patient at St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Detroit, for five months, but was removed two months ago to his home, where the death occurred last Thursday evening.

Born in Ohio, Mr. Pyle had lived in Detroit 50 years before coming to Birmingham, and had been connected with the Preferred Accident Insurance Company for 45 years up to the time of his death. His office was in the Hammond Building, Detroit.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John C. Kinsel, Jr., of Detroit, and Mrs. Oswald Janisse, of Birmingham; four grandchildren, Helen and Jane Kinsel, and Joseph and Margaret Janisse, and by three great-grandchildren.

Accountant Seeks Treasurer's Office

Charlie W. Cole

Charlie W. Cole, for nine years an accountant in the Oakland County treasurer's office, will be a candidate for the nomination as county treasurer on the Republican ticket in the September primaries.

A native of Oakland County, Cole was assistant city treasurer in Pontiac from 1919 to 1922, following nearly two years of service in the U. S. Army. From 1922 to 1925 he was Pontiac city assessor. The following nine years he served as an accountant in the county treasurer's office, resigning in January of this year to join a Pontiac business firm.

LOCAL BOY SCOUT WINS HIGH HONOR

Wenzl Named One Of Six From Detroit Area To Attend Eagle Camp

Selected as one of six Scouts in the Detroit Metropolitan area for the honor, Jules Wenzl, who was named Birmingham's outstanding Boy Scout of 1932, will leave Saturday to spend two weeks at the Eagle Scout Honor-Guard summer camp on Mackinac Island as the guest of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission, which established the camp in 1929.

Boy Scouts are chosen to attend the camp on the basis of their past records in scouting, together with competitive examinations given by district Boy Scout Councils. Wenzl took his examination through the Detroit Council. Wenzl, assistant scoutmaster of Troop B-3, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Wenzl, 511 Hanna street.

The nine Scouts from the Detroit area will be among 40 Eagle Scouts from Michigan and 14 other states who have been selected to spend two weeks at the camp this summer, both for a vacation and to part duty on the Island. During their stay at the camp, the Scouts are quartered in the old Fort Mackinac, and are given an opportunity to practice woodcraft, to study the forest and flowers, and to guide, during a five-hour daily assignment, the thousands who annually climb the ancient Sully Fort to see the Old Fort, the block house and cannon, and the famed State Historical Museum.

Each Scout is given a regular official commission by the Governor of the state, and his oath is administered in ceremonial form by the president of the Mackinac Island State Park Commission. In July and August, 1933, 42 Eagle Scouts were on active duty on the Island, succeeding the original eight who served in 1929.

AULENBACH TO TALK ON MOVIE PROBLEM

"Are the Movies Really to Blame?" is the timely subject of the sermon the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector, will preach at Christ Church Cranbrook at the 11 o'clock worship service Sunday morning. He is expected to comment at some length on the current attempt of the churches to clean up the movies.

Services at 11 o'clock each Sunday morning will be continued throughout the summer at Christ Church Cranbrook. Each service will be preceded by a carillon recital from 10:35 to 10:50 A. M. by William Hall Miner, bellmaster and organist.

OFFICER OF SALVATION ARMY TO SPEAK HERE

Col. A. S. Norris of Detroit, commander of the eastern Michigan division of the Salvation Army, will be the speaker at the 11 o'clock worship service this Sunday at St. James' Episcopal Church, Colonel Norris, who has been connected with the Salvation Army for the past 40 years, will continue the discussions of personal religions which have featured the services at St. James' in the absence of the rector, the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth.

U. Of M. Renews Two Local Scholarships

Alumni Club Grants Awarded Again To Max Lambie And Donald Parry

Two Birmingham students who are holders of alumni club scholarships to the University of Michigan have had their grants renewed for 1934-35, according to information released yesterday in Ann Arbor.

They are Mary Lambie, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John S. Lambie, 713 Pierce street, and Donald Parry, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Parry, 787 Oakland avenue, both of whom received their original scholarships last year for 1933-34. The scholarship entitles the holder to a year's free tuition, and is renewed from year to year so long as the holder maintains a high scholastic standing. Parry and Miss Lambie were among 74 students whose scholarships were renewed for 1933-34.

The scholarships are of the same type as those won this year by Henry M. Foley, Jr., of 888 Madison avenue, and Robert Judson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Judson of Williamsburg road. Fifty such scholarships were awarded this year, in addition to the 74 which were renewed, according to Dr. Clarence S. Yoakum, vice-president and director of educational investigations. Final selections of scholarship holders is made by Dr. Yoakum from candidates nominated by district alumni bodies.

Hassberger Chapter Takes State Honors

Merz Elected Scribe at State Conclave; Guckelberg Stars In Track Meet

Double honors fell to the Hassberger DeMolay Chapter of Birmingham at the third annual state DeMolay conclave held Friday, Saturday and Sunday at Camp Rademaker on Bear Lake.

William Merz, scribe of the Hassberger Chapter, was elected state scribe as the candidate of the Metropolitan district. One candidate from each of the other six districts was also nominated. At the track meet held Friday afternoon, Bill Guckelberg of the local chapter won high scoring honors both for himself and the chapter by placing first in three events, the broad jump, high jump and 50-yard dash. Silver trophies were awarded to both Guckelberg, a former Baldwin High School football and track star, and to the chapter.

Eight members of the Hassberger Chapter were among the 101 DeMolays from all over the state who attended the conclave. Next year's convention will be held at Camp Rademaker July 4, 5, 6, and 7.

City Aides On 'Hot Weather Schedule'

City employees at the Municipal Building began going to work Monday on a daylight-saving schedule of their own. Instead of punching the time clock at 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. as formerly, they are now starting work at 7 and quitting at 4. The new hours constitute purely a "hot weather schedule," City Manager James W. Parry explained, and will be continued only through August.
