A Lot Of People Have Done This, But Not For A Reward

Like a page torn from those engrossing tales of the "Suicide Club" comes the invitation, by way of a classified advertisement for a young man to risk his life and limb—for a consideration. If he wins, he comes out of the ordeal richer. If he loses—but then, no young man who would take up such a challenge would consider the possibility of failure. Five minutes of hair-raising, breath-taking excitement is all the feat would take. The wanted, which appears in today's classified ads of The Eccentric, reads:

WANTED—Single man to drive standard make passenger automobile in a head-on collision with another automobile at the Oakland County Fair, Milford, in connection with the International Congress of Daredevils on the race track on Saturday afternoon only, August 11th. Must crash at forty miles per hour or no pay, and give unconditional release in case of injury or death. Alexander, Michigan, for other car. Name terms. Write B. Ward Beam, Oakland County Fair, Milford, Mich. Though the reward is not stipulated in the advertisement, it is understood that the dowry of the death-defying stunt will be given several hundred dollars if they live. They will be allowed to protect themselves with special clothing and helmets if they care to.

The Congress of Daredevils, consisting of 14 events, including motorcycle races, auto polo, Canille Renaud jumping over a table with a motorcycle, Mary Wiggins, Hollywood stunt girl crashing through a board wall with a motorcycle, the ash can derby, somersaulting car, funny Ford and a roll-over car, will be put on the afternoon of Aug. 11 only.
