

News of Social and Personal Interest

PLANS FOR BRIDGE ARE PROGRESSING

Many Will Take Tables at Tea To Benefit Scholarship Fund

Plans are under way for the bridge tea to be given by the Bloomfield Hills Branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association at Forest Lake Country Club, Wednesday, June 20. Mrs. William G. Lorenson is general chairman and Mrs. Frank L. Klingensmith is vice-chairman.

Among those taking tables will be Mrs. Joseph Hirschaw, Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, Mrs. G. W. J. Linton, the Misses Sarah and Addie Ly, Mrs. Gardner Jackson, Mrs. C. C. Penny, Jr., Mrs. C. A. Newcomb, Jr., Mrs. Ralph Stone, Mrs. Charles Elton Buck, Mrs. Carl Armistead, Mrs. Guy C. Lacey, Mrs. Carleton Fox, Mrs. Stanton Clark, Mrs. O. P. Kilbourn, Mrs. Sidney Waldron, Mrs. Manley Davis, Mrs. E. C. Jamieson, Mrs. C. Richard, Mrs. John T. Shaw, Mrs. Walter Thompson, Mrs. W. D. Thompson, Mrs. William E. Tracey, Mrs. Frank W. Shuell, Mrs. Donald James, Mrs. Sherman L. Dewey, Mrs. William E. Rice, Mrs. Lawrence Booth, Mrs. Harry Hills, Mrs. Phillip Baker, Mrs. Klengensmith, Mrs. George P. Raynalie, Mrs. James A. Blackwood, Mrs. C. C. Bromley, Mrs. S. S. Marlow, Mrs. John Endicott, Mrs. L. A. Porter, Mrs. W. S. Kennedy, Mrs. Louis Kahn, Mrs. Walter G. Forley, Mrs. William Purves and Mrs. T. S. McRae.

Before the tea, Mrs. Walter G. Forley and Mrs. Richard English will be joint hostesses at luncheon at the latter's home. Their guests will include Mrs. Forbush, Mrs. Rose Ly, Mrs. Joseph Western, Mrs. Fred Hilliard, Mrs. Lawrence Smith, Mrs. Louis Shegwood and Mrs. John Hornbrook.

The tea will be sponsored by the Bloomfield Branch as a benefit for a scholarship fund maintained by the National Association.

Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer G. Freeman of Harmon avenue left Wednesday to attend the graduation exercises at Phillips Exeter Academy in Exeter, N. H. Their son, Robert, is a member of the senior class. Before arriving at Exeter, Mr. and Mrs. Freeman plan to motor through Philadelphia, New York, and Boston.

Mrs. Josephine Braun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun of "Linda Vista," and James Vhay, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay of East Long Lake road, spoke their nuptial vows at the Chapel—St. Hugo of the Hills at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The friends were in the presence of the family and a few close friends by Fr. Sebastian Ebrahims of the Duns Scots' Franciscan Seminary. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and had as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. William F. Blake, Jr. John R. MacManus was the best man for Mr. Vhay.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Vhay chose an afternoon ensemble of white crepe and organza, fashioned on long slender lines, with a jacket of the same material. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white organza hat, a pair of flowers, Mrs. Blake wore a white lace dress, made with a lace jacket, trimmed with fur. Her hat was a large white straw, and an arm bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses completed her costume.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Vhay left for Portland, Me., to remain for several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

William Clark, Jr., of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slickney of Westwood drive, as the guest of their daughter, Mary Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Weirather of Canton, Ill., are here to spend several weeks with their son-in-law and daughter, Mrs. H. J. Havermale of Chester street.

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Horn of Kensington road are motoring through Illinois, Wisconsin and Indiana for their annual, on a journey of two or three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould of Dorchester road and Mr. and Mrs. Cloud L. Cray of Walnut Lake road will leave today for Northampton, Pa., to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Richardson at his home for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Gould had as their guests last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard S. Green of Milwaukee, Wis., who stopped for a brief visit on their way to Aurora, N. Y., to attend the commencement of Wells College, from which their daughter, Helen, will be graduated. Motoring East also were Dana Hooper and his son, Elliott, of Aurora, Ill., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gould Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jackson of Buckingham road had as their dinner guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Steyer of Detroit, and their daughter, Miss Nancy.

Mrs. Charles B. Lee of Wimbledon drive was called away Sunday afternoon by the illness of a sister residing in Molair, N. J.

Mrs. H. H. Henchel of Argyle drive, and her daughter, Miss Eleanor, have returned after a 10 days' motor trip to New York City. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Bundy of Detroit and Miss Mary Constance Prince of Walkerville.

Mrs. Mare Patten of Bloomfield Hills and her children, Joan and Michael, will leave today to spend two weeks at Grand Haven, Mich.

Miss Stella Lett of Evansville, Ind., will arrive Friday to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Payton of Southfield avenue. Spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Payton also is their daughter, Mrs. A. R. Robbins of Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Robbins plans to remain through the month of June.

Mrs. Gorton E. Green of East Lincoln avenue returned Sunday from Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, where she has been a patient during the past week.

Mrs. Dale Carter of Big Beaver road, Mrs. Margaret Davis of Clawson and Mrs. Hazel Thomas of Royal Oak attended the dinner given by the alumni of Lake Orion High School at Lake Orion Friday evening.

Mrs. Forest L. Keenan of Ridge-dale avenue left Tuesday for Catawba Cliff on Lake Erie to meet her mother, Mrs. Jessie Widener Coulton, who has been a guest there for the past month. Mrs. Coulton returned with her daughter for a visit in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan will leave today for Ann Arbor where they will act as chaperons at the spring house party of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ryan of Brookside drive and their three children left Saturday for Mullett Lake, where they will be guests for two weeks.

Mrs. J. B. Minton of Oakland avenue, with her children, Floran, Wanda and Jack, will leave Friday for Fort Smith, Ark. Mrs. Minton and her son plan to return after a week's visit, leaving her daughters to remain for the summer vacation.

Secret Marriage In East Is Revealed After Year

When Miss Hoffmann was a guest in Buffalo, and Mr. Krause came to the city on a business trip, Miss Hilda Jane Moore of St. Clair Shores attended the bride, and Rev. Branch of Lake Odessa acted as best man for Mr. Krause.

Krause to his senior semester at Olivet College. Mrs. Krause was graduated from Olivet College, where the two met, in June 1933, one week before the secret wedding in Buffalo.

Mr. Krause graduated from Olivet in January of this year, and since that time has been in business in the East, traveling through the New England States. Mrs. Krause will leave Monday for Boston to join her husband. They reside in Massachusetts.

Announcement of the marriage interrupted Mrs. Hoffmann's plans for a garden tour of the city. The couple on Aug. 15, the date previously set for the ceremony. Following the graduation from Olivet High School, Mrs. Krause attended the Frances Shimer at Olivet. At the latter college, she majored in dramatics, serving as president of the drama club, and as president of the Sorority and as president of the Senior Society. While attending Shimer school, she was elected to membership in Delta Psi Omega, honorary national dramatic society.

Mr. Krause attended the University of Michigan for two years before entering Olivet College.

The marriage was arranged by Mrs. Krause.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Frye of Floyd street, with their family, including Misses George and Roy, will leave today for New York City and Washington, D. C., for a visit of 10 days. Miss Frye was graduated from Marygrove College in Detroit at the recent commencement as a "magna cum laude" student.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Fricke of Yorkshire road returned Saturday from a motor trip through North Carolina. Mr. Fricke's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Arthur Fricke of Baltimore, Md., arrived Sunday for a visit with their son's family. Tuesday, Mr. and Mrs. Fricke and their guests left for a brief visit in Toronto, returning later in the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Gould of Dorchester road and Mr. and Mrs. Cloud L. Cray of Walnut Lake road will leave today for Northampton, Pa., to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Richardson at his home for the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. Gould had as their guests last Thursday, Mr. and Mrs. Hibbard S. Green of Milwaukee, Wis., who stopped for a brief visit on their way to Aurora, N. Y., to attend the commencement of Wells College, from which their daughter, Helen, will be graduated. Motoring East also were Dana Hooper and his son, Elliott, of Aurora, Ill., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gould Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Jackson of Buckingham road had as their dinner guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Steyer of Detroit, and their daughter, Miss Nancy.

Mrs. Charles B. Lee of Wimbledon drive was called away Sunday afternoon by the illness of a sister residing in Molair, N. J.

Mrs. H. H. Henchel of Argyle drive, and her daughter, Miss Eleanor, have returned after a 10 days' motor trip to New York City. They were accompanied by Mrs. Harry Bundy of Detroit and Miss Mary Constance Prince of Walkerville.

Mrs. Mare Patten of Bloomfield Hills and her children, Joan and Michael, will leave today to spend two weeks at Grand Haven, Mich.

Miss Stella Lett of Evansville, Ind., will arrive Friday to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Payton of Southfield avenue. Spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Payton also is their daughter, Mrs. A. R. Robbins of Los Angeles, Cal. Mrs. Robbins plans to remain through the month of June.

Mrs. Gorton E. Green of East Lincoln avenue returned Sunday from Henry Ford Hospital in Detroit, where she has been a patient during the past week.

Mrs. Dale Carter of Big Beaver road, Mrs. Margaret Davis of Clawson and Mrs. Hazel Thomas of Royal Oak attended the dinner given by the alumni of Lake Orion High School at Lake Orion Friday evening.

Mrs. Forest L. Keenan of Ridge-dale avenue left Tuesday for Catawba Cliff on Lake Erie to meet her mother, Mrs. Jessie Widener Coulton, who has been a guest there for the past month. Mrs. Coulton returned with her daughter for a visit in Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. Keenan will leave today for Ann Arbor where they will act as chaperons at the spring house party of Theta Delta Chi Fraternity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ryan of Brookside drive and their three children left Saturday for Mullett Lake, where they will be guests for two weeks.

Mrs. J. B. Minton of Oakland avenue, with her children, Floran, Wanda and Jack, will leave Friday for Fort Smith, Ark. Mrs. Minton and her son plan to return after a week's visit, leaving her daughters to remain for the summer vacation.

CHAPEL SCENE OF SIMPLE CEREMONY

Braun-Vhay Nuptials Unite Families Prominent in Bloomfield Hills Colony

A ceremony marked by simplicity united two prominent families of Bloomfield Hills Saturday when Miss Josephine Braun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Braun of "Linda Vista," and James Vhay, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Vhay of East Long Lake road, spoke their nuptial vows at the Chapel—St. Hugo of the Hills at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The friends were in the presence of the family and a few close friends by Fr. Sebastian Ebrahims of the Duns Scots' Franciscan Seminary. The bride was given in marriage by her father, and had as her only attendant her sister, Mrs. William F. Blake, Jr. John R. MacManus was the best man for Mr. Vhay.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Vhay chose an afternoon ensemble of white crepe and organza, fashioned on long slender lines, with a jacket of the same material. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white organza hat, a pair of flowers, Mrs. Blake wore a white lace dress, made with a lace jacket, trimmed with fur. Her hat was a large white straw, and an arm bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses completed her costume.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Vhay left for Portland, Me., to remain for several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

William Clark, Jr., of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slickney of Westwood drive, as the guest of their daughter, Mary Virginia.

Local Couple Name Date For Wedding

Miss Roberta Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Meeker of Wallace street, and Donald McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McDonald of Chesterfield drive, will be among those to take the marital vows in this popular month of June.

Their wedding will take place at the Royal Oak Baptist church Tuesday, June 26, at 8 P. M. The Rev. W. S. Davison will perform the ceremony. Mrs. Jerry Vanek of Royal Oak will attend and Miss Meeker as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lorene Groves, and Miss Evelyn Williams and Miss Alice Hampton, both of Ferndale.

Jerry Vanek will be the best man. Those ushering will include Lawrence Conley, Hibbard Wilson and Stewart Morley, all of Royal Oak, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

Local Couple Name Date For Wedding

Miss Roberta Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Meeker of Wallace street, and Donald McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McDonald of Chesterfield drive, will be among those to take the marital vows in this popular month of June.

Their wedding will take place at the Royal Oak Baptist church Tuesday, June 26, at 8 P. M. The Rev. W. S. Davison will perform the ceremony. Mrs. Jerry Vanek of Royal Oak will attend and Miss Meeker as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids will be Miss Lorene Groves, and Miss Evelyn Williams and Miss Alice Hampton, both of Ferndale.

Jerry Vanek will be the best man. Those ushering will include Lawrence Conley, Hibbard Wilson and Stewart Morley, all of Royal Oak, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Vhay chose an afternoon ensemble of white crepe and organza, fashioned on long slender lines, with a jacket of the same material. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white organza hat, a pair of flowers, Mrs. Blake wore a white lace dress, made with a lace jacket, trimmed with fur. Her hat was a large white straw, and an arm bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses completed her costume.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Vhay left for Portland, Me., to remain for several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

William Clark, Jr., of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slickney of Westwood drive, as the guest of their daughter, Mary Virginia.

Jerry Vanek will be the best man. Those ushering will include Lawrence Conley, Hibbard Wilson and Stewart Morley, all of Royal Oak, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

VENETIAN FAIR TO HAVE RIVAL HERE

Pet Parade, Variety Of Booths And Outdoor Dance Among Features

The carnival of Venice will find its American rival in the Italian street fair to be held under auspices of the League of St. James' Women on the grounds of St. James' Episcopal Church, Saturday.

Those who love color and the happy informality of street fairs, will find many entertaining diversions including the annual pet parade, booths in which a wide variety of articles and edibles will be sold, afternoon tea, dinner, and an outdoor dance in the evening.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Vhay chose an afternoon ensemble of white crepe and organza, fashioned on long slender lines, with a jacket of the same material. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white organza hat, a pair of flowers, Mrs. Blake wore a white lace dress, made with a lace jacket, trimmed with fur. Her hat was a large white straw, and an arm bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses completed her costume.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Vhay left for Portland, Me., to remain for several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

William Clark, Jr., of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slickney of Westwood drive, as the guest of their daughter, Mary Virginia.

Jerry Vanek will be the best man. Those ushering will include Lawrence Conley, Hibbard Wilson and Stewart Morley, all of Royal Oak, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

For her bridal attire, Mrs. Vhay chose an afternoon ensemble of white crepe and organza, fashioned on long slender lines, with a jacket of the same material. With it she wore a wide-brimmed white organza hat, a pair of flowers, Mrs. Blake wore a white lace dress, made with a lace jacket, trimmed with fur. Her hat was a large white straw, and an arm bouquet of delphinium and yellow roses completed her costume.

Following a wedding breakfast for members of the family, Mr. and Mrs. Vhay left for Portland, Me., to remain for several weeks. On their return they will make their home in Birmingham.

William Clark, Jr., of Washington, D. C., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Slickney of Westwood drive, as the guest of their daughter, Mary Virginia.

Jerry Vanek will be the best man. Those ushering will include Lawrence Conley, Hibbard Wilson and Stewart Morley, all of Royal Oak, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit.

The foreign note will be carried out in the decoration of the church grounds and in costumes to be worn by those in the booths and waiting on the guests.

All pairs, both foreign and domestic, will be welcome in the parade, which is anticipated each year by Birmingham children. As the decisions of the divisions will be based on the most beautiful, the most unique and the most amusing of pets, virtually any bird or beast with two wings or four legs is eligible.

The parade will form in front of the Municipal Building at 1:30 P. M., and the line of march will take it north on Pierce to Maple, and west on Maple to Chester street, where the fair will be held.

George F. Hendrie will marshal the parade. Entries may be made through Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth. Mrs. L. N. Pyle is general chairman for the fair.

NEXT SUNDAY
is
FATHER'S DAY
Remember Him . . . With a Gift From Our Men's Shop

TRUMP

Smartest shirt in its price class
$1.95

We'll match the Arrow TRUMP against any shirt in its price class—confident that the TRUMP value will top them all.

The TRUMP has Arrow tailoring, Arrow style. And it's Sanforized-shrunk—which means a thousand washings cannot shrink it out of size.

In white, stripes and plain colors.

DAD

Will surely appreciate one or more fine ties for his summer wardrobe. You will find an excellent selection of patterns and colors.

DRESS TIES
65c up

WASH TIES
39c

LIGHT TROUSERS
Will Please Him

Flannels . . . $3.95 up
Fine woolen flannels—just the thing for summer dress.

Slacks . . . $1.75 up
Full cut-roomy slacks in stripes of various weaves and colors. Ideal for sports wear.

White Ducks
They are authorized to insure correct fit after laundering. $1.95.

SPORT SWEATERS
$1.00 up

You will find the fine knit—close weave as well as the open knit sport sweaters included in our stock . . . in sleeveless and full length sleeve styles.

MEN'S HOSE

Dad always can use more hose, and here you will find just the kind he will like. Plain or fancy—you'll find them here.

25c up

What Are The Wild Waves Saying?

Well, we haven't interviewed any enterprising fishermen lately, so we wouldn't know. But we DO know that our Beach Togs and Beach Accessories are saying particularly smart things this season! Why not outfit the whole family EARLY . . . and be READY when the "wild waves" call?

JANTZEN SWIM SUITS
For Men, Women and Children

In the newest styles by Jantzen in a wide selection of colors and combinations.

DISCONTINUED PATTERN of the nationally famous PATEx TRIPLE ABSORBENT

Patex is the first dish towel to merit the Good Housekeeping Seal of Approval. That's because it's triple-absorbent—leaves no lint on glassware—and retains its full absorbing power even after a hundred launderings! Here's your chance to stock up at a bargain price. Quantity limited at this special price.

5 FOR 79c
Regularly sold for 1.00
EACH TOWEL A FULL 18" X 36"

MAIL AND TELEPHONE ORDERS FILLED

Mulholland's
233 N. WOODWARD PHONE 425

Get Things For Dad . . . at
MULHOLLAND'S

YOU'LL FEEL AT HOME
When Trading At STROUP'S

SUPER-SERVICE SPECIALS
Thursday - Friday - Saturday

Roasting Chickens . . . lb. 22c

Roast Beef - Choice Steer . . lb. 29c

Round Steak for Swissing . . lb. 23c

Broilers - 2-lb. average . . lb. 29c

Bacon - Sliced . . . 1/2-lb. pkg. 12c

Dried Beef . . . 1-lb. pkg. 10c

Thuringer Sausage . . . lb. 18c

Tomato Juice . . Pt. Jar, Doz. $1.29

Pastry Flour . . . 5-lb. sack 29c

Head Rice . . . 2-lb. pkgs. 17c

Peas - Run of Garden . . . 3 cans 50c

Tenderleaf Tea . . Large pkg. 29c

Gelatin - All flavors . . . pkg. 5c

CocomaLT . . . pkg. 39c

Coffee . . . lb. 19c

Birmingham Fruit Co.
DELIVERY SERVICE
PHONE 65 124 N. WOODWARD