VOWS ARE SPOKEN IN DETROIT CHURCH

Mildred Green And Howard Ritter Are Married At Simple Service

Holmes Memorial M. E. Church in Detroit, where the couple met several years ago, was the scene of the wedding Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock of Miss Mildred Green, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Green of West Frank street, and Howard Daniel Ritter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milo B. Ritter of Detroit. The Rev. John Meredith of Owosso, former pastor, officiated.

Mrs. Clifford Harper attended her sister as matron of honor, and Mr. Harper attended Mr. Ritter as best man.

Miss Green was married in a simple gown of white satin of floor length, made with long sleeves and a high neckline. Her short tulle veil, falling to the shoulders, was held in place with orange blossoms. A bouquet of white rosebuds and baby's breath completed the bridal costume.

For her sister's wedding, Mrs. Harper wore a gown of pink crepe, made with a cape collar falling over the shoulders. She wore a shoulder bouquet of pink rose buds and baby's breath.

Large baskets of pink and white roses were used in the decoration of the church.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Ritter left on a motor trip to Chicago. They will be at home to their friends after July 15 at 223 East Frank street.

Mrs. Louis Ruthenberg of Arlington drive is making a fortnight's visit in New York City.

A prominent group of Bloomfield Hills matrons will take an active part in the annual tour of the estate of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford in Dearborn, to be held Saturday for the benefit of the Girls Friendly Society. Mrs. Sherman L. Depew is chairman in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Depew and Mrs. Ralph Stoepel are members of the reception committee, which includes, among others, Mrs. Ford, Bishop and Mrs. Herman Page, and Archdeacon and Mrs. Leonard P. Hagger.

Miss Margaret Hendrie will be one of the hostesses in the English garden, and Mrs. Joseph F. Page and Mrs. John Gillette will be among the hostesses in the rose garden. Mrs. Sidney D. Waldon and Miss Carol Rohm will receive guests in the rock garden with Mrs. Clarence Eisman and Miss Ina McEachran. Mrs. William E. Rice will be in charge of refreshments.

Each year Mrs. Ford opens her gardens to the public to aid the work of the Society in maintaining Holiday House, the Birds' Nest and Rest Cottage at Pine Lake, where girls, mothers and children are cared for during the summer months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Irwin of New Meadows, Ida., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. E. E. Church and Mr. Church of Bates street.

Miss Mary Jane Stults of Fort Wayne, Ind., arrived Saturday with Miss Jane King of Shirley drive, to be the latter's guest. Miss King spent the past week as the guest of Miss Stults in Fort Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Francisco of Lane Pine Estates left Saturday with their daughters, Marilyn and Barbara, to spend a week at the World's Fair in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Bliss of Indianapolis, Ind., spent the weekend with the latter's sister, Mrs. C. J. Whirl and Mr. Whirl of Willis street.

POPULAR COUPLE WEDS IN ROYAL OAK

Meeker-McDonald Ceremony Attended By Large Number Of Friends

A large number of friends attended the wedding of Miss Roberta Meeker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Meeker of Wallace street, and Donald McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. McDonald of Chesterfield drive, which was held in the Royal Oak Baptist Church, Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Gerry Vanek of Royal Oak attended the bride as matron of honor, and the bridesmaids were Miss Lorene Groves, Mrs. Hibbard Wilson and Miss Alice Hampton of Ferndale.

The bride was becomingly gowned in white satin, fashioned on the Princess lines, with high neckline and long sleeves. The gown was made of lace to the elbow, and satin to the wrist. The skirt ended in a long train, over which fell a long tulle veil. A close fitting lace cap held the veil in place. The bride carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Vanek wore a peach-colored lace gown of floor length, and carried Johanna Hill roses. The dresses of the bridesmaids were in the pastel shades of organdie, Miss Groves wearing pink, Mrs. Wilson, yellow, and Miss Hampton blue. Their hats were of matching shades, and they carried mixed bouquets, also in the pastel tints. Mary Lou Muhlolland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Muhlolland of Ridgedale avenue, who acted as flower girl, wore a quaint frock of green organdie, and carried a basket of rose petals.

Mr. Vanek attended Mr. McDonald as best man, and Lawrence Cutley, Hibbard Wilson, and Harry Armstrong of Detroit were the ushers.

A reception for 100 guests in the tabernacle of the church followed the ceremony. After a brief wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. McDonald will reside in the Bloomfield Court apartments.

Mrs. D. S. Hastreiter of Abbey road entertained members of her sewing club at her home Monday.
