We Say that VON is Different & Better!

VON has a FLAVOR that can not be duplicated because it is brewed from the CHOICEST INGREDIENTS we can buy—expensive for us, yes—but, we believe, well worth the extra cost! You will doubly appreciate VON when you buy it for only a few cents more than the price of ordinary beer.

VON appeals equally to seasoned beer drinkers and to those who have insisted that they didn't enjoy beer at all.

VON has just the right alcoholic content—delicately flavored with hops from Bohemia in proportions that give it the exquisite taste that makes you want "another glass."
