Churches To Stage Court-Room Drama

"The Prisoner at the Bar," a court-room drama, will be presented in the assembly room of the First Baptist Church Sunday evening at 7:45 o'clock. No admission will be charged and the ticket is invited. The play is being sponsored jointly by the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian Churches. The part of the prisoner will be taken by Frank Church, of the State Anti-Slavery League, who is acting pastor of the local Baptist Church in 1897. The other members of the cast are members of the three participating churches, including George Jackson as the sheriff, Mrs. Curtis Harris as Mrs. Frank Hall, Joe Green as the court clerk, Virginia Curtis as the prisoner's daughter, Arthur Claxton as the state attorney, Fredrick and William Gilman as the defense, Richard Johnson as "Tom Hamlin," the Rev. L. Earl Jackson as the state attorney and Floyd S. Buck as "Judge Forsythe."

Death Claims Baby Born On New Year's

Berhardt Ann Zettie, who was born last New Year's day and received a large number of prizes through the Eccentric as the first child born in 1934 to parents in Birmingham or Bloomfield Township, died last Thursday at her home, 1348 Humphrey avenue, following a brief illness. She was the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Zettie. A prayer service was held from the residence Friday afternoon, and the body was taken to West Branch for burial Saturday morning at St. Joseph's cemetery. Surviving, besides the parents, are three sisters, Shirley, Donna Jean and Mary Ellen, and one brother, Donald.

EX-CLERGYMAN WILL PREACH AT ST. JAMES'

Ralph L. Lee, 671 Pilgrim road, who has been ordained in the Episcopal Church but left the ministry to engage in business, will conduct the services Sunday at St. James' Episcopal Church. The regular rector, the Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, is still in Arkansas for his health. Mr. Lee, who moved to Birmingham last winter from Dayton, O., and who is associated with the Jan Handy Picture Service, Inc., in Detroit, will conduct communion services at 8 and 11 A. M., and preach at the latter service.

It was a very passive and totally unarmored "John Dillinger" who cooperated in his car. Stanley Bank and Patrolman Stanley Korman in Bloomfield Hills. In fact, it wasn't Dillinger at all, but an employee of the Chrysler Motors Corporation, the officers learned from Flint and Pontiac, and said to be carrying the notorious gangster toward Detroit. The driver "looked a little" like Dillinger, the officers said, but there all resemblance ceased. Tuesday morning's showers failed to prevent a group of more than 20 city employees and their friends from rising at the general 10 p.m. rally at the Municipal Building at 8 o'clock. The rain spoiled some of the golf, but didn't dampen the enthusiasm for eggs, coffee and home-made doughnuts at the clubhouse afterwards.

Shirley Suzanne Spike, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Victor Spike of Glenhurst drive, left Tuesday for Camp Interlochen at Interlochen, Mich., to spend the month of July.

Red Wings To Play Softball Tilt Here
Monday evening, July 9, has been set as the tentative date for an exhibition softball game on Poppleton field here between the Detroit Red Wings, composed largely of members of the national championship hockey team of the same name, and the Williams' Root Shop nine, leader in the Twilight Division of the Birmingham Softball League. The Red Wings are being brought to Birmingham by Louis J. Giffels, manager of the Detroit Olympia, where the hockey matches are played. Mr. Giffels lives in Birmingham at 515 Kennansville avenue. Yesterday, he set July 9 as the tentative date for their appearance, but said this might have to be changed. Enough of the Red Wings, who were runners-up in the international hockey cup series last winter, make their home in Detroit this year, round to be able to form a softball team and keep in shape by running bases instead of changing pucks. Goodfellow, Pines, Cox, Pettigrew and others are among the skating wizards who thus pass part of their time during the hot weather, and who will play here against Williams'.
