

If men possessed entire truths, and had complete understanding of those truths, they would be omnipotent, indeed... and how tolerant it would tend to make them!

FIFTY-SIXTH YEAR, NO. 47

HIS PAYMENTS ON REEF DEFICIT

By G. R. A.

St. Petersburg, Florida, Feb. 27, 1934. (Usually, I carry a portable typewriter with me when I go from town to town...)

Parry To Question Feasibility Of Plan In Letter To Skelton

FOUR OBJECTIONS CITED

Payment of $259,79 by the City of Birmingham as its share of the $28,000 by which the expenditures for welfare relief in Oakland County for January exceeded the appropriation of federal funds is being held up on the order of the City Commission.

The Commission Monday night referred the request for payment to City Manager James W. Parry, with the understanding that he would inform S. S. Skelton, county welfare director, of the result of his study.

Predict Light Primary Vote

Campaigns Mild In Both Troy And Southfield Townships

Light votes in the annual spring primary elections Monday in both Troy and Southfield townships were predicted today on only mild campaigns.

A full slate of Republicans in Troy Township is seeking to regain ground lost to Democrats in the spring. Garner Miller, former supervisor, and Richard T. Warren are the main contenders.

Another bit of evidence that real estate in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills district is again deflating on the upgrade is this photograph of a home recently purchased from J. E. Burris by E. Dean Alexander, prominent Detroit attorney, who expects to take possession early next summer.

Realtors Looking Foward To Early Property Revival

Real estate is coming back into the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills district, according to realtors here.

This is the unanimous opinion of realtors in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills district, who are looking forward to a genuine property revival in the coming spring and summer.

Head Tax Is Paid By Only 400 Here Before 'Deadline'

Collection of the state head tax had county, state and local officials in a dizzy whirl yesterday, but the taxpayers themselves didn't seem to be worrying much about it.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

Let Water Run To Avoid Frozen Pipes

A warning to Birmingham residents to keep a small stream of water flowing through cold pipes at all times during cold weather to prevent freezing is being issued yesterday by non-Manager James W. Parry.

More reports of water pipe freezing have been received this winter than in the previous six years put together, Mr. Parry said, adding that between 30 and 25 complaints have been reported from sections of the city where frozen pipes are very common.

Parry To Question Feasibility Of Plan In Letter To Skelton

FOUR OBJECTIONS CITED

Payment of $259,79 by the City of Birmingham as its share of the $28,000 by which the expenditures for welfare relief in Oakland County for January exceeded the appropriation of federal funds is being held up on the order of the City Commission.

Predict Light Primary Vote

Campaigns Mild In Both Troy And Southfield Townships

Light votes in the annual spring primary elections Monday in both Troy and Southfield townships were predicted today on only mild campaigns.

A full slate of Republicans in Troy Township is seeking to regain ground lost to Democrats in the spring. Garner Miller, former supervisor, and Richard T. Warren are the main contenders.

Head Tax Is Paid By Only 400 Here Before 'Deadline'

Collection of the state head tax had county, state and local officials in a dizzy whirl yesterday, but the taxpayers themselves didn't seem to be worrying much about it.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

Let Water Run To Avoid Frozen Pipes

A warning to Birmingham residents to keep a small stream of water flowing through cold pipes at all times during cold weather to prevent freezing is being issued yesterday by non-Manager James W. Parry.

More reports of water pipe freezing have been received this winter than in the previous six years put together, Mr. Parry said, adding that between 30 and 25 complaints have been reported from sections of the city where frozen pipes are very common.

Parry To Question Feasibility Of Plan In Letter To Skelton

FOUR OBJECTIONS CITED

Payment of $259,79 by the City of Birmingham as its share of the $28,000 by which the expenditures for welfare relief in Oakland County for January exceeded the appropriation of federal funds is being held up on the order of the City Commission.

Predict Light Primary Vote

Campaigns Mild In Both Troy And Southfield Townships

Light votes in the annual spring primary elections Monday in both Troy and Southfield townships were predicted today on only mild campaigns.

A full slate of Republicans in Troy Township is seeking to regain ground lost to Democrats in the spring. Garner Miller, former supervisor, and Richard T. Warren are the main contenders.

Head Tax Is Paid By Only 400 Here Before 'Deadline'

Collection of the state head tax had county, state and local officials in a dizzy whirl yesterday, but the taxpayers themselves didn't seem to be worrying much about it.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

Let Water Run To Avoid Frozen Pipes

A warning to Birmingham residents to keep a small stream of water flowing through cold pipes at all times during cold weather to prevent freezing is being issued yesterday by non-Manager James W. Parry.

More reports of water pipe freezing have been received this winter than in the previous six years put together, Mr. Parry said, adding that between 30 and 25 complaints have been reported from sections of the city where frozen pipes are very common.

Parry To Question Feasibility Of Plan In Letter To Skelton

FOUR OBJECTIONS CITED

Payment of $259,79 by the City of Birmingham as its share of the $28,000 by which the expenditures for welfare relief in Oakland County for January exceeded the appropriation of federal funds is being held up on the order of the City Commission.

Predict Light Primary Vote

Campaigns Mild In Both Troy And Southfield Townships

Light votes in the annual spring primary elections Monday in both Troy and Southfield townships were predicted today on only mild campaigns.

A full slate of Republicans in Troy Township is seeking to regain ground lost to Democrats in the spring. Garner Miller, former supervisor, and Richard T. Warren are the main contenders.

Head Tax Is Paid By Only 400 Here Before 'Deadline'

Collection of the state head tax had county, state and local officials in a dizzy whirl yesterday, but the taxpayers themselves didn't seem to be worrying much about it.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

Let Water Run To Avoid Frozen Pipes

A warning to Birmingham residents to keep a small stream of water flowing through cold pipes at all times during cold weather to prevent freezing is being issued yesterday by non-Manager James W. Parry.

More reports of water pipe freezing have been received this winter than in the previous six years put together, Mr. Parry said, adding that between 30 and 25 complaints have been reported from sections of the city where frozen pipes are very common.

Parry To Question Feasibility Of Plan In Letter To Skelton

FOUR OBJECTIONS CITED

Payment of $259,79 by the City of Birmingham as its share of the $28,000 by which the expenditures for welfare relief in Oakland County for January exceeded the appropriation of federal funds is being held up on the order of the City Commission.

Predict Light Primary Vote

Campaigns Mild In Both Troy And Southfield Townships

Light votes in the annual spring primary elections Monday in both Troy and Southfield townships were predicted today on only mild campaigns.

A full slate of Republicans in Troy Township is seeking to regain ground lost to Democrats in the spring. Garner Miller, former supervisor, and Richard T. Warren are the main contenders.

Head Tax Is Paid By Only 400 Here Before 'Deadline'

Collection of the state head tax had county, state and local officials in a dizzy whirl yesterday, but the taxpayers themselves didn't seem to be worrying much about it.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

Help The Scouts Do A 'Good Turn'

If you have any old furniture, bedding, clothing, kitchen utensils, garden tools or household equipment of any kind which is no longer of any use to you—don't throw it away! Save it and give it to the unified Birmingham Boy Scout who will call at your house Saturday morning, who has been specially commissioned by President Roosevelt to take part in a national "good turn" to aid unfortunate families throughout the country.

To make sure your contributions are not misused, all the Community House, 2406, today, or Friday, and your name and address will be listed for the visit of the "good turn" truck Saturday morning.

6 CANDIDATES IN CITY RACE

Hulbert Enters Commission Campaign; Petitions Name 3 Liberty Incumbents

One candidate for the City Commission was still lacking today to fill the vacancy on the commission for the annual city election April 2. With next Saturday, Mar. 10, the last day for filing petitions, names are being obtained on petitions naming two candidates for the commission for the year 1934-35.

Although taxpayers appeared at the treasurer's department in the Municipal Building here in increasing numbers as the theoretical deadline neared, at the close of the day it was not believed that more than 400, or 10 per cent of all Birminghamites coming under the law in charge of collecting the tax, would have been able to pay.

Troy Dems To Hear Aide Of Comstock

O. K. Fjeldstad, executive secretary of Gov. William A. Comstock, is scheduled to speak at the Troy Central Presbyterian Church, Livernois and Seventeen Mile road, on Monday night, Feb. 27.

Legion Will Aid Memorial Fund

Proceeds Of Card Party Saturday To Support Campaign For McKinney Cottage

The Charles Edwards Post of the American Legion will contribute its bit in a statewide campaign being made by Legion posts for the McKinney Memorial fund.

Bits O' Birmingham

By THE WANDERER

John Watkins of Ridgedale avenue intends to keep up with his classmates in a bookkeeping course and in the evening will be in the sunny south, presumably to prepare them on the sandy beaches, and return to Birmingham as when they are done for each class.

$2.00 PER YEAR—SINGLE COPIES 5c

BOY SCOUTS TO COLLECT CLOTHING ON 'GOOD TURN'

Will Collect Clothing, Furniture In Drive For Needy Families

F. D.'S PLEA ANSWERED

Birmingham Boy Scouts were preparing to extend a community-wide appeal today for the entire city to take part in the "good turn" they will do this week-end in response to a request broadcast to the Scouts by the nation by President Roosevelt three weeks ago.

A resident's request was that the Scouts lift a helping hand for the country's indigent families by collecting and distributing anything that might be practically usable suffering from straitened circumstances.

Residents here will make their collection Saturday morning, riding in eight trucks the use of which will be donated by local merchants, and supervised by adult leaders, more than 100 uniforms and hats will be required to help the needy.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

According to K. B. Olson, chairman of the civic service committee of the Boy Scout District Council, a use will be made of practically any imaginable article, no matter how old or no matter how dilapidated its condition.

Arrangements have been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending. Arrangements have also been made for repairing worn out or broken articles, and for cleaning and mending.

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1

Turn to Page 2, No. 1