LIONS CLUB HOLDS 2ND DANCE FROLIC

Friendly Spirit Prevails At Party For Benefit of Community House

A spirit of friendly informality prevailed Wednesday evening when members of the Birmingham Lions Club and their guests gathered at the Community House to enjoy the second of a series of dances sponsored by that organization for the benefit of the House.

Like the first, a St. Valentine's dance, the second party, which honored Mr. Patrick in its decorations, was well attended. Carl Rupp's orchestra furnished the music, and Mr. Rupp was in charge of a floor show. A buffet supper was another enjoyable feature.

The committee on arrangements included Clarence Blennan, Leslie Bergman and Russell McBride. Prior to the dance, members of the club and their wives dined together at the House.

Literary Club Departments Announce Program Topics

In accordance with the decision made by the Women's Literary Club to continue departmental meetings, the four departments will meet at the homes of members next Tuesday.

Mrs. H. H. Wellman, formerly of Birmingham, will entertain members of the world's work department at her home in Ann Arbor for luncheon and a program. Mrs. Leland J. Bunyan is chairman of the department.

The American home department will meet at the home of the chairman, Mrs. Robert E. Allen of Villa road, for 1 o'clock luncheon. Mrs. Mary Unger will be in charge of the program, which will include a talk on home nursing by Miss Ragna Eskil of Royal Oak.

An interesting program has been arranged for the literary department, which will meet at the home of Mrs. H. H. Gilbert of Kenness drive at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. George E. A. Hallett and Mrs. Fred S. Ross will be in charge of the program, which will include selections from Irish literature and music. Mrs. Fred G. Crawford will give several readings and Mrs. Earl G. Potter will sing a group of songs. Tea will follow the program. Mrs. Caroline Upjegraff is chairman of the department.

Mrs. John S. Black of Oak street will be hostess to members of the art department at 2:30 o'clock. The afternoon will be devoted to a discussion of future plans, tea and a social hour. Mrs. W. Clarence Wright is department chairman. Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. John P. Wood, Mrs. J. E. Welch, and Mrs. Charles W. Crandall.

Members of this department will also be the guests of Mrs. Thomas L. Thurber of Oak street at the exhibit of the Detroit Women Painters' Club at the Secara Club in Detroit, Mar. 27.

Mrs. W. S. Toothacker, president, and Mrs. H. D. Harris represented the club at a meeting of the Grand County Federation of Women's Clubs held Friday in Pontiac. Mrs. William R. Alvord of Detroit was the speaker.

MOTHER-DAUGHTER BRIDGE ANNOUNCED

Service League To Sponsor Affair

Mothers and daughters who enjoy an evening of bridge in each other's company are invited to attend a bridge party arranged in their honor by the Birmingham Service League. The affair will be held at the Community House Monday evening.

The bridge will be one of several social activities planned by the League for the benefit of the milk fund it maintains for Birmingham children who are undernourished. The second event will be a dance in May.
