OPEN HUNT MARKS 17TH ANNIVERSARY

Annual indoor show will be followed by Special Birthday Supper

Particular significance is attached this year to the indoor show of the Bloomfield Open Hunt, to be held Saturday, May 31, as it will mark the 17th anniversary of the club.

As a birthday celebration, the show will be followed by a buffet supper. Special guests on this occasion will be charter members.

The Bloomfield Open Hunt was founded Mar. 30, 1917, at a meeting of the first board of directors held at the Detroit Club. At this meeting, Edward P. Hammond was elected president; George T. Hendrie, vice-president; and Henry F. Chaney, secretary and treasurer. Other members of the board included William Hendrie, E. S. Nichols, Burns Henry, Sherman Dewey, John Endicott and A. Deane Rucker.

The present property, formerly owned by the Grosse Pointe Hunt, was purchased and remodeled the year before last.

The show will feature the usual events, with the President's Cup, donated by Bernard E. Hopper, to be presented to the horse or pony winning the greatest number of points.

Auxiliary Unit Plans Pot-Luck Luncheon

A pot-luck luncheon, followed by bridge and five hundred, will be given by the American Legion Auxiliary at the Legion Home Tuesday at 12:30 P. M. As the local unit has been asked to contribute wash clothes and handkerchiefs for the children's bill at Otter Lake, each member will bring one of either article to the luncheon.

At this meeting the winning team in the membership drive will be announced, and the awards made. Chairmen of the teams are Mrs. John Gill and Miss Agnes Bayne.

The Drum and Bugle Corps of the Legion was host at a card party at the Legion Home Tuesday evening. A buffet supper followed the games. Reginald Robinson was in charge of arrangements.

Club Observes Tenth Anniversary At Dinner

The 10th anniversary of the Present Day Club was observed by its members and their husbands at a dinner held Tuesday evening at the Embury M. E. church.

Mrs. S. F. Wilson acted as toast-mistress. Following the dinner, Mrs. Carol Campbell and Mrs. Roy Smith opened the program with brief tributes to the organization, to which Harvey Musselman and Theodore Kaarsberg responded.

The program included also a monologue by Arthur J. Kane and a candle-lighting service in which the president, Mrs. Kane, and Mrs. Victor Ogden and Mrs. Mahlon Stevens, former presidents, participated. The history of the club was given by Mrs. Stevens.

Bride-Elect Reveals News Of Her Betrothal

A bride-elect of the coming spring to make known her betrothal is Miss Wilma Geraldine Holdridge, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Clark Holdridge of Jackson avenue. Pontiac. Miss Holdridge will become the bride of Manfred Earl Mason of Pontiac, son of Mrs. Lily Mason of Seward avenue, Detroit. Although no definite date has been selected, the ceremony will take place early in the summer.

Miss Holdridge is a member of Beta Theta Pi Sorority, and is known in Birmingham as a member of The Eccentric's commercial staff.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting of Lake Park drive and their family will spend Easter Sunday with Mrs. Whiting's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Macauley of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Karel M. Riekeron of Harmon avenue are planning to move to Kansas City, Mo., some time in April.

GIRL SCOUTS

Members of the Girl Scout Council are planning to attend the field institute, to be held Monday at the Hotel Statler, Detroit, under auspices of the Detroit Girl Scout Council.

In addition to Birmingham, other communities to be represented at the institute include Royal Oak, Port Huron, Ann Arbor, Pontiac and Mt. Clemens.

Birmingham Council members will lunch together at the Women's City Club, and will hold a brief meeting prior to the afternoon session.

Miss Amy Lambie has been appointed leader of Troop 1, following the resignation of Miss Miriam Brown. This troop meets each Wednesday afternoon at the Community House.

Classes in home nursing for Girl Scouts are conducted each Friday at 4 P. M. at the Community House by Mrs. Earl Gaskill of Frank street. A graduate of the nurses training department of Henry Ford Hospital, the class has an attendance of 16 Scouts.

At the completion of the course, Mrs. Gaskill will give a series of first aid lessons to the same group.

Bridal Couple Will Live In Birmingham

A bridal couple who will make their home in Birmingham at 1276 Bird avenue are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. McClure, whose marriage was solemnized Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilson of Royal Oak.

Mrs. McClure was the former Miss Muriel Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilson of Eden, Ont. Mr. McClure is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. McClure of Clarkston, formerly of Birmingham.

Miss Eula McCurdy, cousin of the bride, served as her only attendant. Mrs. McClure was married in an afternoon gown of powder blue with which she carried Tallman roses and white sweet peas. Miss McCurdy also wore an afternoon dress of tea rose yellow and carried violets and yellow roses.

William McClure assisted his brother as best man. The Rev. Ross A. Adams of Pontiac read the nuptial service in the presence of the family and a few close friends. Mrs. W. C. Wylie Bell-gave the bride in marriage.

A buffet supper was served following the ceremony.

There's certain charm in Navy Blue

JACKET FROCKS

The jacket frock in Navy Blue gives that well-dressed, completely costumed look when you're indoors, luncheoning, teeing or cocktailting. When you take off your coat, but leave your hat on you know you are correctly garbed. Of course, they are perfect to wear under your coat now and will be just as smart later on as street ensembles.

Healy's Birmingham Shop has quite an array of Navy Blue jacket frocks of which the one sketched is a notable example. The Navy Blue sheer jacket has wide revers of white pique with cut-out embroidery, and the frock has a little white pique jabot.
