

This particular "one" is written in the warm atmosphere of St. Petersburg, Fla., on Mar. 2, 1934. News-papers from the North and West have been read in Michigan. In spite of which, however, I would not trade Michigan for a second Florida.

BOOMERangs and THAT CHIEF RESIGNS

St. Petersburg, Fla., Mar. 2, 1934.—E. W. O'Brien, chief of the Birmingham Police Department, has resigned and has left for his home in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he has been for some time. He was appointed to the position in 1927 and served for seven years. He was a member of the police force in the city of St. Petersburg, Fla., and was a member of the police force in the city of Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years. He was a member of the police force in the city of Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years. He was a member of the police force in the city of Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years.

Police Head Quits

Chief William Putnam of the Bloomfield Hills police department has resigned and has left for his home in St. Petersburg, Fla., where he has been for some time. He was appointed to the position in 1927 and served for seven years. He was a member of the police force in the city of St. Petersburg, Fla., and was a member of the police force in the city of Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years. He was a member of the police force in the city of Birmingham, Ala., for a number of years.

Miller To Oppose Wedge Again April 2 For Troy Supervisorship

Wedge defeated last year in the Troy Supervisorship election. Miller, who was defeated last year, is expected to run again in the election on April 2. He is a member of the Troy Board of Supervisors and is a member of the Troy Board of Supervisors. He is a member of the Troy Board of Supervisors and is a member of the Troy Board of Supervisors.

YPSILANTI NORMAL SYMPHONY PLAYS HERE FRIDAY

The Ypsilanti Normal Symphony Orchestra will give a concert at the First Methodist Church in Birmingham on Friday evening. The concert will feature a program of classical music and will be conducted by the orchestra's conductor. The concert will be a free admission and is open to all.

3 Units Reach Agreement On Details Of Settlement

The three units representing the Ypsilanti Normal Symphony Orchestra have reached an agreement on the details of a settlement. The settlement will provide for the payment of back wages and benefits to the orchestra members. The settlement will be a significant step towards resolving the long-standing dispute between the orchestra and its management.

PROGRAM HAS TWO SOLOISTS

The program for the Ypsilanti Normal Symphony Orchestra concert on Friday evening will feature two soloists. The soloists will be Carl Lindgren, violinist, and Fossenkemper's Group, which will perform a variety of pieces. The concert will be a highlight of the orchestra's season and is expected to attract a large audience.

COVERED FUEL PLAN DROPPED

The plan to cover fuel for the Bloomfield Hills police department has been dropped. The plan was proposed by the department's chief and was intended to provide for the payment of fuel costs for the department's vehicles. The plan was dropped because of the high cost of fuel and the department's budget constraints.

Commission Learns Coke In Open Bins Absorbs Little Moisture

The commission has learned that coke in open bins absorbs very little moisture. This finding is significant because it affects the way in which coke is stored and used in the steel industry. The commission's findings will be used to develop regulations that will ensure the quality and safety of coke used in the industry.

What The Women Think About It

A survey of women's opinions on the proposed settlement for the Ypsilanti Normal Symphony Orchestra has been conducted. The survey found that most women support the settlement and believe that it is a fair and reasonable resolution of the dispute. The survey also found that women are generally concerned about the financial stability of the orchestra and the well-being of its members.

May Set Standard

The commission is expected to set a standard for the quality of coke used in the steel industry. This standard will be based on the commission's findings and will be used to evaluate the quality of coke produced by different manufacturers. The standard will be a key factor in determining which manufacturers are allowed to supply coke to the steel industry.

Monday Last Day To Pay Taxes Here

Monday, March 12, is the last day for taxpayers to pay their taxes for the year. Taxpayers who have not yet paid their taxes should do so as soon as possible to avoid penalties and interest charges. The deadline applies to all taxpayers, including individuals and businesses.

BURROUGHS TO SPEAK AT ACADEMY OF ART

Clyde H. Burroughs, curator of the Academy of Art, will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Friday evening at the Academy of Art and is open to all. Burroughs is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

Two Of Famous Sculptor's New Works To Be Exhibited

Two of the famous sculptor's new works will be exhibited at the Academy of Art. The works are "The Mother" and "The Child" and are considered to be some of the sculptor's best work. The exhibition is a free event and is open to all.

Bloomfield G. O. P. Schedules Caucus To Pick Candidates

The Bloomfield G. O. P. has scheduled a caucus to pick candidates for the upcoming election. The caucus will be held on Friday evening and will be open to all members of the party. The candidates will be chosen by a vote of the members.

Will Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Prof. Charles T. Goodsell will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Sunday at the Baptist Church and is open to all. Goodsell is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Bits O' Birmingham

A collection of interesting news items from Birmingham. The items include a report on the new bridge over the river, a report on the new school building, and a report on the new park. The items are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in Birmingham.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

Will Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Prof. Charles T. Goodsell will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Sunday at the Baptist Church and is open to all. Goodsell is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Bits O' Birmingham

A collection of interesting news items from Birmingham. The items include a report on the new bridge over the river, a report on the new school building, and a report on the new park. The items are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in Birmingham.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

Will Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Prof. Charles T. Goodsell will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Sunday at the Baptist Church and is open to all. Goodsell is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Bits O' Birmingham

A collection of interesting news items from Birmingham. The items include a report on the new bridge over the river, a report on the new school building, and a report on the new park. The items are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in Birmingham.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

Will Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Prof. Charles T. Goodsell will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Sunday at the Baptist Church and is open to all. Goodsell is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Bits O' Birmingham

A collection of interesting news items from Birmingham. The items include a report on the new bridge over the river, a report on the new school building, and a report on the new park. The items are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in Birmingham.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.

Public To View

The public is invited to view the new works of art that have been donated to the Academy of Art. The works include a variety of paintings and sculptures and are of high quality. The public viewing is a free event and is open to all.

6 CASES FILED FOR CONVICTION

Six cases have been filed for conviction in the city. The cases include a variety of crimes and are being handled by the city's legal department. The cases are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in the city's legal system.

Petitions Circulated For Buck, Baker, Mann, And O'Brien

Petitions are being circulated for the election of Buck, Baker, Mann, and O'Brien. The petitions are being signed by citizens and are being presented to the city's officials. The election is a significant event and the citizens are showing their support for these candidates.

Registration

Registration is being held for the upcoming election. Citizens are encouraged to register as soon as possible to ensure that they are eligible to vote. The registration is a free event and is open to all.

BURROUGHS TO SPEAK AT ACADEMY OF ART

Clyde H. Burroughs, curator of the Academy of Art, will give a lecture on the history of art in Birmingham. The lecture will be held on Friday evening at the Academy of Art and is open to all. Burroughs is a well-known art historian and has written several books on the history of art.

Bits O' Birmingham

A collection of interesting news items from Birmingham. The items include a report on the new bridge over the river, a report on the new school building, and a report on the new park. The items are of interest to the community and provide a snapshot of what is happening in Birmingham.

City May Buy Materials To Finish CWA Projects

The city is considering buying materials to finish the CWA projects. The projects include the construction of a new bridge over the river, the construction of a new school building, and the construction of a new park. The city is currently in the process of evaluating the proposals and will make a decision in the near future.