Village Players Set Aside Evening For Work, Play

The copybook maxim to the effect that "less and pleasure won't mix" notwithstanding, the Village Players have solved the age-old problem and discovered how it can be done.

Those who hold the key to the solution are E. G. Eden and Mrs. Paul Neal Averill, joint chairmen for the annual business meeting and frolic to be staged at the Playhouse Saturday, May 26. As planned the program cleverly combines both business and little frivolity. The affair will open with a Chinese dinner at 7:30 P. M. which will be served by 20 Players dressed as Chinese waiters, with Dr. J. B. Hassberger as major domo of the corps. At the dinner hour, Carl Rupp will entertain the diners from his post at the piano with a medley of selections from musical shows presented by the Players. As souvenirs, those at the tables will find copies of the same selections at their places.

While the waiters are serving dinner, Waldo E. Fellows, Mrs. Carl

Mothers Will Be Tea Guests At Kingswood

Simplicity Marks Nuptials Of Prominent Hills Couple

Simplicity was the keynote of the wedding ceremony which united Miss Mary Adelle Shaw, daughter of Mrs. John T. Shaw of Bloomfield Hills and John Lammert Morley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Morley of Bloomfield Hills, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

The Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach read the marriage rites in the presence of a small number of relatives and friends who gathered in the Log Cabin on Whysall, Mrs. Shaw's estate, to witness the ceremony. The bride was attired in a smart traveling costume, consisting of a light-navy taffeta crepe suit with three-quarter length coat, with which she wore a white blouse and a small-brimmed light-blue hat with navy bands, and dark blue accessories. A shoulder bouquet of white gardenias completed her costume.

Mrs. James Morrison Taylor, who acted as matron of honor, wore a navy and light blue suit with hat and shoes in matching shades. Her flowers were a shoulder bouquet of tulleman roses.

Town Hall Changes Place Of Lectures

Announcement has been made by Mrs. Kathleen Strinzinger, director of the Detroit Town Hall series, that the 1934-35 season will open next October in the Fisher Theater instead of in the Wilson Theater, as in the season past.

The lectures will be held on Wednesday mornings at 10 o'clock. Lunches will be served in a private dining room in the Fisher Building at the close of each program. An innovation will be fashion shows to be staged during the luncheon and before the speaker makes his customary after-luncheon remarks.

President Robert Hutchins of the University of Chicago will be the speaker at the opening lecture the first Wednesday in October. Others to speak will be Nellie Taylor Ross, Will Irwin, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., Dr. Lewis Berg, Edith St. Vincent Millay, and Albert Edward Wiggan.

Mrs. William McCallum of East Maple avenue returned Monday from a visit of 10 days in the East, during which she was a guest in Washington, D. C., Wilmington, Del., New York and Philadelphia. While in Washington, Mrs. McCallum attended the annual convention of the Women's National Farm and Gardening Association, which held its session there May 1, 2nd and 3rd.
