OLD LACE ADORNS BRIDAL COSTUME

Ann Tobin and Francis Palm, Jr., who were married last night at the Afternoon Ceremony...

Old lace which belonged to her great grandmother, adorned the gown of Miss Ann Margaret Tobin of Douglastown, L. I., when she became the bride of Francis Palm, Jr., of Bloomfield Hills, Friday afternoon at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ring Gardner of East Hampton, L. I.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Fr. Edward M. Kehoe, pastor of St. Philomena's Church at East Hampton at 4 o'clock. The bride was gown in white satin, fashioned on stately lines suggesting the medieval era.

Italian Fair To Be Revived For First Time In 7 Years

The Italian street fair, which was at one time an annual event for St. James' Episcopal Church, will be revived for the first time in seven years on the church grounds Saturday, June 16.

For the same time afterwards, an Italian fair was given by the church each year, until the custom was gradually discontinued, and the fair changed character as time went on.

There will be a hot sale with Mrs. H. D. Rued as chairman, a dairy booth presented over by Mrs. George F. Hendrie, and a refreshment booth in charge of E. W. Helt.
