SCHOOL REPAIR JOB RESUMED

Workers Promised Today For Unfinished CWA Project

An indefinite number of men have been promised by the Oakland County Emergency Welfare Relief Commission to be put to work today on completing the job of repainting and repairing the Birmingham public schools, which was begun under the CWA but not completed.

Application for the labor was made several weeks ago but was only recently approved in Lansing and until today no men had been sent to work on the project. Louis M. Randall, business manager of the schools, said, however, that the Emergency Welfare Relief Commission in Pontiac, which is in charge of the Work-Wage program under which the men will be assigned, has informed him that some men will be put to work on the project today. The actual number was not named.

The principal work which remains to be done is the outside painting of the school buildings and remodeling of the interior of Hill School for the housing of administrative offices. From 20 to 25 men would be needed to complete the work since Randall to their best advantage, Mr. Randall said.

Bloomfield Hills officials learned Tuesday that their application for Work-Wage labor with which to remodel the Bloomfield Township garage to prepare for the moving into it of city offices, police and fire departments, had been approved in Lansing by state FERA officials.

The work will begin as soon as the labor is available. The Bloomfield Commission, which will spend up to $3,000 for materials, plans to start construction on the project, Tuesday night appointed John Redmond as superintendent at $1.50 an hour.

The Township garage is to become the property of Bloomfield Township under the terms of the division of joint assets and liabilities of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and Bloomfield. The township offices, which have been located in the building for the past year, will not be moved under the new management, and the merging of the fire departments of the two units will be effected.

From 48 to 70 men have been employed during the past week on the City of Birmingham's three unfinished CWA projects, with more workers expected to be assigned today, according to City Manager, James W. Parry.

About half of those assigned have been used on the park development project, and the other half on the two sewer jobs. Planting of trees and shrubs and the laying of sidewalks in the second block of the Civic Center, part of the park project, should be completed by the end of next week, Mr. Parry said.

Rotary Committees Selected For Year

F. Morse Cooke, Incoming President, Makes Service Club Appointments

Reports of various committees including remarks by Dr. Herbert E. Moore, president, praising the work of John McKee and Louis Hascall for their work in getting Rotarians to attend the district conference at Saginaw three weeks ago, occupied the local Rotary Club Monday noon at the Community House. Edward H. Laird, chairman of the club's committee to urge attendance at the coming Rotary International Convention, to be held in Detroit June 25-29, discussed a number of the features to be given. Short talks were also made by Louis Hascall and J. B. Howarth.

F. Morse Cooke, who will succeed President Moore to that office July 1, this week announced the following committees for the ensuing year:

Club service: Joseph E. Stroun, chairman, assisted on programs by Charles J. Shain, Harry Bissett Ed Laird, and Frank J. Mulholland.

Membership and classification: Louis Hascall, chairman, Walter L. Connelly, Charles E. James; community service: Forbes S. Hascall, chairman, George R. Aveill Alfred J. LaBelle; vocational service: Harry Bissett, chairman Charles O'Connor, S. O. Wylie Bell.

International services: Charles J. Shain, chairman; crippled children: Ralph Corvell, chairman Dan Swartz, Joe Lamet, Dr. Harold Roehm; boys' work: J. M. Hardin, chairman, John McKee, J. B. Dailey; Rotary education; J. B. Howarth, chairman; fellowship and attendance: George B. Boutwell, chairman, Elmer C. Huston; recreation: C. V. Libke, chairman Louis Hascall, Dr. Warren P. Gibson, Phil J. Williams.

Entertainment: Edward H. Laird, chairman; public information: George R. Averill, chairman, Robert D. Lynd; sergeant-at-arms: Frank J. Mulholland; luncheon fees: James W. Cobb; song leader, Victor Peck.

Charles B. Randall succeeds himself as treasurer.

He was one of two winners from among several hundred competitors, all of the purils of the parochial schools of Detroit and vicinity being eligible to compete. Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Siau, 1411 Dorchester road.

Obituary

CORNELIUS SULLIVAN

Cornelius Sullivan, 72-year-old native of Oakland County, who had spent most of his life in Troy Township, died last Thursday morning at the home of his son, Roy Sullivan, in Akron, Mich., with whom he had resided for the past three months. Death was caused by lobar pneumonia.

Funeral services were held from the S. O. Wylie Bell Funeral Home here Saturday morning. Interment was in Crooks Cemetery. Mr. Sullivan was a retired farmer. His son and wife, Mrs. Maude S. Sullivan, survive.

HEARING ON CLOSING OF ALLEYS CALLED

The City Commission will hold a public hearing at its regular meeting Monday, June 4, on a petition requesting the closing and vacating of three alleys in Birmingham Heights Subdivision, the block bounded by Greenwood, Vinewood, Harmon and Woodland avenues.

The petition, signed by seven property owners in the block, war presented to the Commission last week, but action was deferred until last Monday because three members of the Commission had been absent the week before and a vote of five-sevenths of the members is necessary to call such a hearing.

Mrs. R. C. Hansen of Puritan road entertained 10 young guests at a supper party Saturday in honor of the 7th birthday of her daughter, Ann. The guests included Evelyn Biggers, Martina McKinney, Lucy Bennett, Diana Roosevelt, Mary Welch, Jane and Nancy Dodds, Nan Gilbreath, Catherine Brumbaum, and Betty Grimmelsman. A Maypole cake decked with gay colored streamers formed the centerpiece for the supper table.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Melvin C. Hart, principal, Baldwin High School: "It seems to me that our country will make greater strides toward recovery from now on if the federal government ceases to interfere with the natural laws that regulate the exchange of goods and services. Business must be given assurance that its plans will not be upset overnight, if private enterprise and individual endeavor are to help us to prosperity."

Dance Opens Year At Oakland Hills

The first dinner dance of the season will be held at Oakland Hills Country Club Saturday evening. After this initial event, the club expects to hold dances each Saturday evening through the summer. A dinner dance on Memorial Day is another event on the club's calendar.

Among these taking guests to the opening party on Saturday are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rule of Linden road, who have invited Mr. and Mrs. Raymond R. White, Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Daisley, Mr. and Mrs. Euclid T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Clark of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Schmidt of Pontiac, and Mr. and Mrs. David Ralston of Lansing, who will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rule for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Whirl of Willits street will entertain at a cocktail party at their home, later taking their guests to Oakland Hills for dinner and dancing. In their party will be Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Prussing, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Vehmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Ostell and Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Myers.

Guild Dance Will Aid Social Service Work

The Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church Cranbrook will hold its initial dance in the Guild Hall Friday evening for the benefit of various social service projects sponsored by the organization.

Invitation has been extended by the Auxiliary through Mrs. Sheldon R. Noble, general chairman for the dance, to all those interested in attending. Tickets may be secured from any member of the committee or at the door.

Assisting Mrs. Noble with various arrangements are Mrs. Edith M. Forbush, Mrs. H. Gray Muzzy, Mrs. Clark Bennett and Mrs. F. H. Mott, Jr.

Mrs. Harry Bayley Is Taken By Death

Largely attended funeral services for Mrs. Stella B. Bayley, wife of Harry R. Bayley, 887 East Maple avenue, were held Saturday afternoon from the S. O. Wylie Bell Funeral Home, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. The Rev. Dr. R. D. Hopkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church, officiated.

Mrs. Bayley died last Thursday afternoon in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital where she was confined with diabetes. She had been a resident of Birmingham since June, 1921, coming here from Indianapolis, Ind. She was born in Illinois.

Surviving, besides the husband, are two brothers, Benjamin E. and William A. Fleck, both of Decatur, Ill. She was a sister-in-law of James V. Bayley, Bloomfield Township Clerk.

LEVINSON LOSES PLACE ON TAX COMMISSION

David Levinson, one of Birmingham's four representatives on the County Board of Supervisors, has been replaced as a member of the Oakland County Tax Allocation Commission by Charles H. Harmon, former city assessor of Pontiac.

The replacement was made by Probate Judge Dan A. McGaffey, who said it was done in accordance with a recent amendment passed by the State Legislature which makes it mandatory for at least one member of the Commission to be a resident of the largest municipality in the county. The Commission's task is to allocate the various tax rates which may be spread by the various units of the county under the 15-mill limitation.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Col. Robert T. Stanton, of Mohegan avenue: "One thing that strikes me as nice about Birmingham is that its citizens get busy early every spring to tidy up their yards. It proves that they have civic pride and individual industry."

F. Morse Cook, principal, Adams school: "The average Hi-Y leader is closer to the boy problem of the nation than any adult can hope to be. Being nearer the age, too, makes it possible for a young leader to inspire younger boys, because he does not give the appearance of 'preaching'."

DETECTING THE PROBLEM AND DIRECTING THE PLAY

THE FOLLOWING hand is instructive, showing how the declarer sometimes may determine precise holdings, and so direct play as to produce a desired ending.

	♠ A K J 9 8 ♥ K 8 ♦ 5 4 3 ♣ Q 6 2
♠ 7 3 2 ♥ J 9 4 3 2 ♦ J 7 ♣ A 7 3	W. E. S.	♠ 5 ♥ A Q 10 5 ♦ 10 9 8 6 ♣ J 10 9 5
	♠ Q 10 6 4 ♥ 7 6 ♦ A K Q 2 ♣ K 8 4

Bidding went: South, 1-Diamond; North, 1-Spade; East doubled, requesting his partner to choose between the two unbid suits, with only North and South vulnerable; South, 4-Spades, effectually shutting out West from a sacrifice call; East doubled, ending bidding.

The opening lead was the J of clubs, Dummy played low. The lead definitely marked the missing Q with North. If West put up his Ace, both the K and the Q must win tricks, unless the latter happened to be a singleton, which probably was not the case. West gave a come-on with his 7. Declarer's Q won the trick.

North took three rounds of spades. East followed to the first, then he echoed with his 10 and 5 of hearts, definitely locating the Ace and Q, probably also showing an original holding of just four of that suit. Two rounds of top diamonds were taken next. When West's J dropped it showed East with the two remaining missing cards of that suit. Also it showed that East originally had held just four clubs. The declarer ran off both his remaining spades, to squeeze East. On the first, East let go his lowest club. Seven tricks had been won by North. The remaining six cards held by the players were as shown below, and North knew just where each card was located, reducing the play to a simple problem.

	♠ A ♥ K 8 ♦ 4 ♣ 6 2
♠ None ♥ J 9 4 3 ♦ None ♣ A 3	W. E. S.	♠ None ♥ A Q ♦ 10 9 ♣ 10 9
	♠ None ♥ 7 6 ♦ A 2 ♣ K*

North led his Ace, of spades. East had to unguard one of his suits. It made no difference which he unguarded, but he chose to let go his 9 of clubs. North led his 2 of clubs. There went on the trick the 10, Ace and K, leaving dummy's 8 of clubs good. West led a heart, giving East two tricks in that suit, but when East led a diamond, dummy had left only the good Ace and its top club, winning the last two tricks and giving the declarer his 10 tricks total.

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
H. T. Ellerby, of Adams avenue: "Never has there been, in my generation, so much apparent demoralization in human conduct as there is today. In public and in private life, there is a looseness among both adults and adolescent youth that augurs evil days ahead. This liquor business is simply terrible. Speaking as an insurance man who is in a position to observe traffic conditions, it is becoming more noticeable that an increased number of accidents are due to drinking."

BURGLAR STEALS COINS, WATCH AND CUFF LINKS

A dime bank containing $4 in coins, a gold watch and a pair of cuff links constituted the loot of a thief who entered the home of W. J. Moritz, 412 South Adams avenue, some time during the week-end. The watch and cuff links were valued at $7. The theft was discovered by the Moritz family when it returned home Sunday night after spending the week-end in Saginaw.

The house had been entered through a south window, the lock of which had been broken, police said.
