NEW RELIEF JOBS BEGUN

Work Starts On Township Garage And Local School Projects Three carpenters and two laborers Monday began the work of remodeling the Bloomfield Township garage to house the municipal offices of the City of Bloomfield Hills, which is to come into legal ownership of the structure under the terms of the division of the joint assets of Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and the township.

Work was resumed last week under the new relief program of the Birmingham schools' unfinished CWA repairing and painting project. Ten men have been working on the project the past week and gave out to be assigned to other work.

Work on catch-basin and leads, and most of the back-fill has been completed, he said. Approximately 60 men have been employed on the three city projects the past week. As soon as the park program is completed, the men employed on it will be shifted to the sewer jobs.

NEW BEER, ALE STORE REPORTS BRISK TRADE

A brisk business in bottled beer and ale is reported by the management of Ritter's, new beer store which opened last week at 205 East Maple avenue. The store is under the active management of Mrs. A. Ritter, formerly a resident of Birmingham.

Work was resumed last week under the new relief program of the Birmingham schools' unfinished CWA repairing and painting project.

When we spend enormous sums of money in widening streets, I can't understand the theory that says we should use the additional space in parking cars," said Mayor Allen.

Demands Evidence Of Mishap Mr. Mulholland's pointed out that, following a heavy snowstorm last winter, drifts at the curb made it necessary for automobiles to park "almost in the middle of the street" without causing any serious damage to the sidewalks.

Summer Campers Will Hold Reunion The 50th anniversary of the beginning of organized camping will be celebrated at a meeting at the First Baptist Church Friday evening, sponsored by leaders of the Oakland County Y. M. C. A. summer camp at Loon Lake.

Old-time campers will be introduced by Raymond H. Peck, E. W. Seaholm will address the meeting for all men and boys who have ever attended a Y. M. C. A. or other type of camp, their sons or fathers, and any other persons interested.

Debt Service Not Included These estimates do not take into account any of the city's debt service requirements for the coming year. In the current budget, $70,771.68 is included for debt service, covering interest in full on all bonds, and principal payments on refunding bonds but not on bonds of original issue.

Expansion of the city nursery, $900. These estimates do not take into account any of the city's debt service requirements for the coming year.
