PAGEANT TO CLOSE DRAMATIC SEASON

St. Dunstan's Guild Will Give Second Annual Outdoor Performance in Greek Theater

In accordance with a custom established a year ago, members of St. Dunstan's Guild will make their final appearance for this season in an outdoor performance to be staged in the Greek Theater on the grounds of Cranbrook, the estate of Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, Friday evening, June 1.

This year's presentation will be "The Little Father of the Wilderness," rearranged in pageant form by Capt. H. Lyford Towle. A year ago, the Guild closed its season with a pageant entitled "King and Commoner," also presented in the Greek Theater. This year it was decided to continue the custom as an annual event.

Those assigned to principal roles in this year's play include Mrs.

Fletcher D. Richards, the only woman in the cast; A. M. Gault, Roger Murray, J. Robert F. Swanson, Capt. Towle, Vernon B. Kellogg, and Henry Scripps Booth.

Charles Penman of Detroit will direct the production, assisted by Mrs. Towle and Mrs. Robert F. Grintley. Interpretive dancing in this pageant will be directed by Mrs. Grintley.

Invitation is extended by St. Dunstan's Guild to all those of the public interested to attend the performance. In case of rain, the pageant will be presented Saturday, June 2.

Another tradition observed by the Guild is that of holding its annual meeting and election on St. Dunstan's Day, Saturday, June 2, to be that day, and accordingly the members gathered at the meeting house at Brookside School, Cranbrook, and elected a new board of directors. Those chosen were: Capt. Towle, Frederick C. Pew, Mrs. Harry D. Hoy, Mortimer A. Neff, and Sheldon R. Noble. The new board will meet to elect officers early in the autumn.

Approaching Nuptials Hold O. E. S. PLAY WILL BE REPEATED HERE

A wedding which is attracting social interest in both Bloomfield Hills and Grosse Pointe is that of Miss Mary Margaret Emmons, daughter of Harold Emmons of Grosse Pointe, and Thomas Kingsmith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Kingsmith of Orchard Ridge road, who speak their nuptial vows.

The ceremony will be held Thursday evening, June 14, in the Grose Pointe Memorial Church at 8:30 o'clock. The service will be read by Dr. Frank Vit, pastor of the church, assisted by Dr. Edward H. Penne, who was also the officiating clergyman at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Emmons.

Miss Betty Kingsmith, sister of the bridegroom-elect, has been chosen by Miss Emmons to be maid of honor, and Charles W. Marcotte of Birmingham will assist Mr. Kingsmith as best man. Besides Miss Kingsmith, Miss Emmons will be attended by six bridesmaids. They will be Miss Marion McLean, Miss Doris Otter, Miss Margaret Martin, Miss Jane Pfeiffer of Farmington, Miss Ruth Pfeiffer of Farmington, Miss Rosemary McHugh of West Orange, N. J.

Seating the guests will be Charles Kingsmith, Harold Emmons, Mr. Charles L. Winingham, Harry Pipe and Thomas Paulson of Valley City, N. D.

A small reception at the home of Mr. Emmons on Rivard boulevard in Grosse Pointe will follow the ceremony.

The bride and groom played hostess to the bride-elect Tuesday, when Miss Kingsmith entertained in honor of Miss Emmons at a luncheon and shower at her home in Bloomfield Hills. The guests included Miss Frances Romney, Miss Kathleen Dougherty, Miss Betty Merrill, Miss Mary Ellen Bryan, Mrs. J. M. Rainey, Miss Betty Lytle and Joseph R. Dalling. Mrs. Russell M. Heinze is directing the performance features of the performance which will be given by Mrs. Young Moore and music by Manley Tyson's orchestra. Tickets for the play may be obtained from any member of the cast or at the door.

Local Cast Will Give "Beads On A String" At Community House Again

A Birmingham audience will be given another opportunity to enjoy "Beads On A String," the three-act comedy built around complications arising from the whim of an eccentric uncle to divide his property during his lifetime among his nieces, one of whom turns out to be a nephew, at the second local performance of the play at the Community House at 8:15 P. M. Friday.

The first presentation was held at the Community House in April, and due to the success a second was requested from its sponsors, the Order of the Eastern Star. The play was also produced twice in Big Beaver and once in Franklin. Those taking part include Samuel Houting, Mrs. Emma Houting, William Spence, Miss Marian Masters, John Mellema, John Parks, Mrs. J. M. Rainey, Miss Betty Lytle and Joseph R. Dalling. Mrs. Russell M. Heinze is directing the performance features of the performance which will be given by Mrs. Young Moore and music by Manley Tyson's orchestra. Tickets for the play may be obtained from any member of the cast or at the door.
