Round Of Dinner Parties To Precede Spring Dance

There are dinners and more dinners being planned and discussed by members of the Birmingham Service League to precede the league's annual spring dance at the Community House Friday evening. The affair promises to be a sprightly event with Floyd Snyder's orchestra furnishing the music, and balloons and spring flowers adding to the gaiety.

Miss Katherine Mann is one of those inviting guests to dine at her home before the dance, including Miss Mary Jane Wilson, Miss Betty Brede, Arthur Ott, Earl Maxwell and Roger Brown. Miss Mary Quinn Johnson of West Maple avenue, has invited several guests from Detroit to a buffet supper following the dance. Another group planning a subscription dinner, also at Devon Gardens, includes the Misses Joan Winborn, Betty Brown, Emily Larson, Ruth Martoff, Alice Grinnshaw, Shirley Brown, Beryl Grinnshaw, Martha Newton, Jeannette, and James and Sherman LaMasse. George Winborn, Ralph Schwartz, Stewart Whitney, Walter E. Maxwell, Edward R. Gahrett, Bob Webster, Maxwell Doer, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. Carson Kopp.

House Will Benefit By FERA Class Bridge Tea

A bridge tea to benefit the Community House will be held at the House Tuesday afternoon under auspices of the members of an auxiliary in the FERA class which has been meeting three times a week since February and 285 in March and April.

Mrs. Bernard L. Snyder is general chairman of the affair. Assisting her will be Mrs. George V. Reed, Mrs. C. LeRoy Austin, Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington, and Mrs. E. A. Harrett.

Door prizes will be awarded.

CARNIVAL TO PAY VACATION COSTS

Proceeds Will Provide Means Of Sending Birmingham Girls To Camp

Those attending the Girl Reserves' street carnival and bake sale at the corner of West Maple avenue and Bates street Saturday will help to open the door of opportunity for pleasant vacation at Camp Cavell this summer for girls of this community.

The carnival is the subject of the event is to aid in the extension work of the Y. W. C. A. in metropolitan Detroit and suburban communities, and to provide funds for sending to Camp Cavell, the Girl Reserve camp on Lake Huron, a group of Birmingham girls who would otherwise have to remain at home.

In charge of arrangements for the event are Mrs. John Campbell and Miss Barbara McCutcheon, joint chairmen. Serving on the committee are Mrs. Leigh Lynch, Mrs. G. F. Forsyth, Miss Jennie Latham, Mrs. George T. Hendrie, Mrs. Paul Penfold, Mrs. Warren Pease, Jr., Mrs. L. M. Baker, Mrs. Emily Walker, Miss Margaret Lam and Mrs. Gladys Rogers.

The carnival will begin at 10 A. M. and continue to 8 P. M. with the usual features, including a puppet show to be presented by Miss Marjorie Phillips at three o'clock and performances during the day, pictures of Camp Cavell to be shown by Miss Margaret Berz of the Detroit Y. W. C. A., a Mickey Mouse movie, a wheel of fortune, a grab bag, and other attractions.
