For Emergencies Only "I want it understood, however," he declared, "that these cards will be issued in cases of emergency only, and that their purpose will be to encourage the idea among motorists that they can leave their cars in one place for four or five hours at a time..."

(Concluded 5 from Page 1) April, 1933, to Jan. 1 of this year, has been missing from his regular seat at the Commission table nine times since the latter date. Commissioner McBride, who went off to Texas last fall, was counted absent at 15 consecutive meetings until he mailed in his resignation which took effect Dec. 15. Commissioner Osborne was absent from Mar. 12, after he had announced his intention of resigning, continuously until April 5, when the resignation became effective.

(Concluded 1 from Page 1) "I don't care what you think, we know what you know, we know the law." "Well, I may as well get off the stand, then," said the witness. "I can't talk without thinking. I'm no lawyer."

(Concluded 2 from Page 1) "And those of you who have been to War, maybe are thinking of the thousands of men forever remembered to the grand, and millions forever dead—a precious sacrifice to War. Yes, this day is in honor of our dead—but we know that honor means little to dead men. And yet as we make our gesture of honor, let us not merely be mindful of the heroism of those who fought and died, of those who fought but were not, but also remember never to forget the hellish insanity of War."
