Mart Arouses Interest Of Local Organizations

Birmingham organizations and churches are entering into plans for the Village Mart this year with the usual enthusiasm and spirit of cooperation, according to Mrs. L. N. Pyle, general chairman. The Mart will open in the Community House Friday, Dec. 7 and continue through Saturday, Dec. 8.

The first definite arrangements were completed at a recent meeting called by Mrs. Pyle, when booths were assigned and chairmen appointed. Mrs. Edward Appell is in charge of the booth sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary at which wooden ware will be sold. Birmingham Girl Reserves are in charge of the candy booth, under the chairmanship of Roberta Chisus.

The "Kitchen Cupboards" and grab-bag will be in charge of the Westminster Guild of the First Presbyterian Church, with Miss Margaret Ross as the chairman. Home-made cookies will be found at the booth assigned to the Em-bury M. E. church, of which Mrs. Victor R. Ogden will be in charge. Miss Elva Hillman is chairman of the booth for the Baptist Church, which is planning to sell taffy apples.

"Dime Store" Planned

The Barnum School Parent-Teacher Association will again have a "dime store" as it did a year ago, and it will also sell paper products. Mrs. George Grenenbach has been appointed chairman.

A booth where miscellaneous articles will be sold is to be operated by the Redeemer Lutheran church, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Robert McKee. Mrs. Harry MacL' is directing arrangements for the booth sponsored by the Holy Name Catholic Church, at which delicacies and baked goods will be sold.

Members of St. James' Episcopal Church will sponsor a booth for linens and hand-decorated articles, with Mrs. Ada Moore and Mrs. Milton F. Coulson in charge.

The Birmingham group of the alumnae chapter of Pi Beta Phi Sorority will sell handicraft articles made by students of a school their organization maintains in the Tennessee mountains. Mrs. Newton F. Hadley will be the chairman.

Fortunes will be told at a booth to be in charge of Mrs. Fred Semann, of the Order of the Eastern Star. Pop corn balls also will be sold at this booth.

Mrs. Robert D. Lynd is chairman for the booth assigned to the First Methodist Church for the sale of home-made pies, and Mrs. Bernice Evans is chairman of the Service League's booth, at which various novelties will be sold.

Mrs. R. W. Chisus is in charge of the White Elephant booth, which is maintained each year to defray expenses. The doll booth, to which each of the other booths contributes dolls to be sold for charity, will be directed by Miss Barbara McCutcheon.

In charge of decorations for the Mart will be Mrs. F. B. Etter and Mrs. John H. Gordon.

SHOW WILL REVEAL FASHIONS OF PAST

Men And Women Models To Take Part In Style Pageant

Fashion history for the past 100 years will be traced in a style show which will be held at the Community House, Friday, Nov. 23, at 8 P. M. The show will be sponsored by the League of St. James' Women, with Mrs. Lane Bishop as the general chairman of arrangements.

The show will not be confined to women's styles alone, but will include also some of the modes for men worn at various periods of the last century. All fashions will be exhibited by men and women models selected by the committee.

Another novel feature will be a musical program in charge of Walden E. Felton. There will be a group of old fashioned songs by the Piety Hill Quartet, composed of Mrs. J. H. White, Mrs. W. Whittington, Henry Morgan and Fred D. Farrar, accompanied by Mrs. H. E. Felton.

Assisting Mrs. Bishop on the general committee are Mrs. George Edward Ford, Mrs. J. L. Hardig, Mrs. Warner L. Forsyth, Mrs. C. E. Asper and Mrs. George T. Hendrie. Mrs. Frank Cavan is chairman of the ticket committee, and Mrs. Donald Bay is in charge of publicity.
