Local Bank Far Behind In Release Of Deposits

The first National Bank of Birmingham is one of 54 nationally-chartered banks in Michigan which failed to re-open at the close of the banking holiday, Mar. 15, 1933. Since that date, the Birmingham bank has paid out 25 per cent of its original deposits. Of the other 53 banks, two have also paid out 25 per cent, four others have paid less than 25 per cent, and the remaining 47 have paid more than 25 per cent, the naturents reacting all the interest of the part of the par
