NUPTIALS AROUSE INTEREST IN HILLS

Peggie Pettes and George Whittlesey to Speak Marriage Vows On Dec. 10

In Bloomfield Hill at the present moment attention is being focused upon the approaching nuptials of Miss Peggie Pettes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Owen Pettes, of Detroit, to George Hargroves Whittlesey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Beale Whittlesey, also of Bloomfield.

The date chosen by the young couple for their wedding is Monday, Dec. 10, at 5:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The service will be read at the home of the bride's parents, in the presence of the family and close relatives.

Miss Helen Bradford of Alpena, at whose home Miss Pettes and Mr. Whittlesey were guests at a house party when their engagement was announced in the early fall, will attend the bride as honor maid. Frederick Whittlesey will be best man for his brother.

A small reception for the wedding guests will follow the ceremony. After a wedding trip, the bride and bridegroom will make their home in a guest cottage on the Whittlesey estate on Hickory Grove road.

League Dance To Be Given With Dual Object In View

Milk Fund To Benefit From Affair At Community House Friday

The dance which the Birmingham Service League will sponsor at the Community House Friday evening, will be given with a dual objective in view, according to Miss Barbara McCutcheon, president of the League and a member of the committee in charge of the dance.

The main purpose will be to raise money for a general milk fund to be used for underprivileged children, as recommended by Miss Blanche Breskey, city health nurse.

The social object of the affair will be to bring together through out the winter in a series of monthly dances, of which this will be the first, the young married people and those of the unmarried set who have finished school. The dances will be held each month, and will be simple affairs of a very informal nature.

Other members of the committee include Miss Barbara Jane Evans, Miss Katherine Mann and Miss Eleanor Henchel.

Prior to the dance, Miss Evans will entertain a number of the guests at her home on Quorum road. In the party will be the Misses Katherine Mann, Shirley Brown, Ruth Pratt, Betty Brown, Barbara McCutcheon, Mary Quinn Johnson, Barbara Hill, Eleanor Henchel, Betty Lou Myers, Helen Starr and Mary Marks, and Earl Maxwell, Gilbert Hadas, Malcolm
