ated as to believe that? Certainly there is nothing in the amendment to say how much the oil companies will charge for gasoline, and my opinion is that the cost of gasoline will continue to be determined by what the traffic will bear, and that if passage of the amendment will mean a loss of $6,500,000 to the state highway fund, the oil companies themselves will pocket that amount.

M. Eastern Standard Time.

(Concluded 1 from Page 1) neighbors, for much of government is, in a very large sense, made necessary by the unwillingness of people to learn to live with the least friction and strife among themselves. When you cannot "love thy neighbor as thyself, you allow many human evils of greed and selfishness and unfairness, anger, jealousy, etc., etc., to be made manifest in human relationships, and it becomes necessary to set up outside influences to eradicate as far as possible these evils. That is why, in a world that is now getting the backwash of hatreds that burst forth in a World War, our federal and state governments are so rapidly entering into the affairs of every life, especially in the economic world.

(Concluded 2 from Page 1) of modern culture may find an outlet. I believe that this area is a center of the idealism of good living. It is a great cultural area, and in it the Community House plays a splendid part. I congratulate the Birmingham Rotary Club for assuming the responsibility for obtaining sufficient revenues to carry on its work. Cooke Plagues Support Mr. Cooke, who is principal of Adams School in addition to being the president of the Rotary club, pledged the support of the entire membership toward the objective. There is a tendency to view us, in times of economic stress, Mr. Cooke said, "to be so involved and hindered by current, personal problems that we neglect the reasonable consideration to those social agencies essential to the welfare of our city."

Wednesday 'Closed Date' For Town Hall Patrons

As a word to the wise hostesses—do choose Wednesday for bridge or other social gatherings this season, as it will be a closed date for at least 20 weeks to a large number of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills women. Wednesday is marked on calendars by many patrons here and in the Hills as "Closed Day." Beginning Wednesday, Oct. 24, and continuing throughout the winter until April 3, lectures in this series will be given at the Fisher Theater by a score or more of national and international contributors. The programs will begin at 11 A. M., and will be followed by luncheon in the Reeces Club, also in the Fisher Building. A feature of the luncheons will be the opportunity to meet informally the speaker of the morning's program. After luncheon, those who care to will be invited to remain for bridge. Well known names on the Wednesday morning roster include Victor Chenkin, who will open the series with international character songs; Edna St. Vincent Millay; Ludwig Lewisohn; Albert Edward Wiggan; Robert Maynard Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago; Will Irwin; Corneilus Vanderbilt, Jr.; Nellie Taylor; and Clotilde and Alexandre Sakharoff, European dancers. Among those from Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills planning to attend are Mrs. Robert Alexander, Mrs. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, Mrs. Francis C. Bagby, Mrs. L. H. Bartemeyer, Mrs. Earl Bartholomew, Mrs. Claude W. Behn, Mrs. E. E. Bessford, Mrs. Miss Betty Blanchard, Mrs. Joseph A. Brann, Mrs. Richard Campbell, Mrs. Harold Carlson, Mrs. Lester G. Collier, Mrs. Guyman Green, Mrs. Frank Cousins, Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels, Mrs. Carl Darmstadter, Mrs. Charles H. Davidson, Mrs. John H. DeVasser, Mrs. H. G. Doeringer, J. G. Donaldson, Mrs. C. Howard Ginnelly, Mrs. Melvin F. Doty, Mrs. J. Arthur Evans, Mrs. Wellington Evans, Mrs. William R. Ewald, Mrs. Herbert A. Fisher, Mrs. John W. M. Fisher, Mrs. Doris Fitch, Mrs.

"It is my understanding that there are other unpledged assets in the possession of the receiver amounting to approximately $800,000, consisting of real estate, mortgages and unsecured assets. 40 Per Cent Loan On the above, an R. F. C. loan of 40 per cent could undoubtedly be obtained and would yield $320,000. Total made available ($154,000 plus $320,000)—$474,000. This, together with probable cash on hand, would permit a 20 per cent advance on the mortgage, sorely needed by the small depositors, as well as public funds urgently required to meet the operating expenses of the county, townships, city and school districts, all of which might be crippled by lack of funds. In my opinion, the foregoing is not impossible nor impracticable if the agency provided in the law previously cited is invoked. "I make no apology for this letter because as a citizen and a taxpayer, I believe that I am strictly within my right in applying to headquarters for relief."

Mr. Black's reply to Mr. Black's letter follows: "We acknowledge your letter of August 16, 1934, with reference to the First National Bank of Birmingham, now in the hands of Thad D. Seeley as receiver. You refer to the fact that the bank has made a 25 per cent distribution to creditors but based on information that you have gathered, it is your opinion that the assets of the bank are adequate so that additional advances may be obtained from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation for the purpose of making further distribution to creditors. "You are advised that this office and the receiver in charge of the bank are endeavoring to liquidate the assets of the bank in a manner which will result in the greatest possible recovery for creditors at the least possible expense. In doing so, we have in mind also the matter of interest on money borrowed and the expense of liquidation of assets pledged."

"It is our purpose to authorize the obtaining of additional advances from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation if and when the receiver in charge of this office and the receiver in charge of the bank are endeavoring to liquidate the assets of the bank in a manner which will result in the greatest possible recovery for creditors at the least possible expense. In doing so, we have in mind also the matter of interest on money borrowed and the expense of liquidation of assets pledged."
