Introducing Artist Model

the all-in-one with detachable and interchangeable bra Perfect for the new streamline silhouette

WE ARE really excited about this new idea in foundation garments. Artist Model is an all-in-one—sleek, smart, glamorous.

But four tiny tabs—four little buttons make it easy to detach the bra from the girdle, so that you can be fitted with the right size and the right type of bra and girdle for your particular figure-requirements.

This is but one of the many Foundation Garments which we have in American Lady and Form-Fit.
