A. & P. CELEBRATES 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Local Stores Participate In Observance Of Company's Diamond Jubilee

Birmingham A. & P. stores are participating this week in the 75th anniversary celebration of the Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company. The company started in 1859 as a single store on Vesey street, in New York City. Now its Diamond Jubilee is being celebrated by 30,000 employees in 15,000 stores, serving 6,000,000 customers a day.

In connection with the celebration, J. T. Patton, the oldest living member of the organization, gave an eyewitness account of the company's growth and recounted some of the vast changes that have taken place in the world's history in the last 75 years.

"These changes, of course, affected every phase of life and every activity in America," Mr. Patton said. "I saw them from a grocery counter, and saw their effect on food retaining. When things changed, food stores changed with them. I remember the great railroad building of the seventies and eighties—and saw how more foods became available and how our own company grew as a result of it."

Soon, with automobiles trucking food to new outlying stores, and with customers coming to stores from greater distances, food stores had to change. Grocery stores with wide assortments, became less and less necessary to deal with customers by mail, or send our wagons out to their houses to solicit orders.

"Customers began to depend on the new canned foods, fresh vegetables summer and winter, on individually packaged foods instead of bulk. Retailing grew up with America—every development in American life had its effect on our business."

"Today I marvel when I compare the food business of 50 and 75 years ago with modern, efficient, wasteless food distribution as we know it now."

Although students at Baldwin High School are not being permitted to leave classes to listen to a radio, a woman who had been installed in the building and students who have vacant periods may listen to the games as long as the Series lasts.

Students lucky enough to have tickets to any of the games are being excused without penalty, providing they have made up their work in advance and have presented a permit from their parents.

For a while last Saturday afternoon, Birmingham police were confident they had arrested Mrs. Florence Goodrich, wife of Merion Ward Goodrich, the young trap hunter who is being sought all over the country for the salacious murder of Lillian Gallagher, 11-year-old Detroit girl. Struck
