MISS AUGUR GUEST AT CRANBROOK TEA University Women Face Year Of Varied Activity

Dr. and Mrs. Stevens To Head Foundation In Welcoming New Kingswood Principal

Dr. and Mrs. William O. Stevens of Cranbrook will act as hosts at a reception to be given by the Cranbrook Foundation in honor of Miss Margaret A. Augur, new head mistress of Kingswood School, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the assembly hall of Cranbrook School.

The affair will be informal, with Dr. and Mrs. Stevens presenting the honor guest. Presiding at the tea table will be various members of the colony.

The following evening, Dr. and Mrs. Stevens will be hosts at a buffet dinner to members of the faculty of Cranbrook School. Included among the guests will be two new members of the staff, the Rev. Robert W. Woodroffe and Dr. John B. Schoenfeld, with their wives.

Mr. Woodroffe is the new curate at Christ Church Cranbrook, and Dr. Schoenfeld is the new physician at Cranbrook School.

Pine Lake Sponsors First Ping Pong Tournament

The first ping pong tournament to be sponsored by Pine Lake Country Club, and which, if successful, may become an annual event, will be staged at the club Saturday and Sunday.

The classes will be divided into junior boys, junior girls and mixed doubles. More than 30 entries were registered early in the week.

The tournament will open Saturday at 10 A. M., and continue through Sunday evening.

Book Sale, State Convention Top Program Of Branch For October

The annual October book sale, a state convention in Detroit, also to be held in October, and a program of varied interests are among the activities which will absorb the time and attention of members of the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women for the coming season.

At the helm of the organization's work again this year will be Mrs. William E. Essery, who was re-elected president at the annual meeting. The new officers will begin their duties, with Mrs. Essery presiding, at the first meeting of the season to be held at the Community House next Wednesday at 2 P. M.

Officers who will start their terms at this meeting include Mrs. Charles E. Lewis, vice-president; Mrs. D. W. Milliman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lewis E. Sappington, treasurer, and Mrs. D. D. Williams of Pleasant Ridge, director. Those continuing in office will be Mrs. W. C. Ailee, recording secretary, and Mrs. J. J. Boura, Jr., also a director.

Committee Heads Named Also taking part in the year's activities will be the committee chairman and department heads whose names were announced by Mrs. Essery this week. Mrs. Lewis is the newly appointed chairman of the membership committee, and Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels will direct the work of the program committee.

We Predict . . .

a great "date" future for our delightful selection of brand new Fall percales. We suggest you get out those style books and scissors right now . . . because when you see the array . . . you'll just naturally get that "cutting up" urge! Maybe it's because autumn is the grandest season of the year . . . and maybe it's because we know just what you Birmingham girls and women want . . . at any rate, they're superlative.
