NEEDLEWORK GUILD PLANS LUNCHEON

Birmingham Members Invited To Be Guests Of Detroit Branch

Invitation has been extended to all members and directors of the Birmingham Branch of the Needlework Guild to attend a luncheon at which the Detroit Branch will be host at the Book Cadillac Hotel next Thursday, Sept. 27. The hostesses including the members of every Guild branch in the state among its guests for this affair.

Miss Maria Halsey Stryker, national junior director, who is well known as a public speaker, will give the principal address. Luncheon reservations for those residing in Birmingham should be made with Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson of Woodland avenue, president of the Birmingham Branch.

Plans are also under way for the annual membership drive to be held this year from Oct. 7 to 15. Mrs. Patterson said. In the 1933 drive, Birmingham won second place in the state for a 50 percent increase in membership. Birmingham's record for its high percentage in membership increase was exceeded only by that of Traverse City.

Each year, Mrs. Truman Newberry, honorary president of the national organization, offers two prizes to the Guild with the greatest number of new members, and to the Guild with the highest membership percentage. Last year Pontiac was winner in the former class. Each prize consists of 100 new garments.

Frances Depew To Become Bride At October Wedding

Marriage To Royal Whitman, II, To Be Solemnized In Christ Church

Since the announcement of the engagement of Miss Frances Pinckney Depew, elder daughter of Mrs. Sherman I. Depew of Hickory Grove Farm, Bloomfield Hills, to Royal Whitman, II, son of Dr. Armitage Whitman and Mrs. Sturgis Whitman of New York City, made last June, society in the Hills and Detroit has been eagerly waiting for the date of the wedding.

It was revealed yesterday, when Mrs. Depew gave Saturday, Oct. 13, as the day for her daughter's marriage. The rites will be solemnized at Christ Church Cranbrook at 3:30 o'clock.

Miss Depew is the granddaughter of Hazen S. Pingree, one-time mayor of Detroit, who was graduated from Vassar College in June. Before entering Vassar, she attended Miss Hall's School at Pittsfield, Mass.

Mr. Whitman is a great-grandson of the late Bishop Armigo, one of the early bishops of Wisconsin, and a grandson of Dr. Royal Whitman, the only American surgeon to be admitted to the Royal College of Surgeons in London. Mr. Whitman was graduated from the Lenox School in Lenox, Mass., in 1927.

Miss Depew made her debut at a reception at the Bloomfield Hills home of her mother in 1931.
