MISS AUGUR WILL GREET DELEGATES

Kingwood Principal To Extend Welcome At Opening Of A. A. U. Convention

When delegates from the Michigan branches of the American Association of University Women assemble at the Hotel Statler in Detroit on Oct. 5 and 6 for the annual state convention, Miss Margaret Augur, principal of Kingwood School, will be the first to greet them.

Miss Augur will extend official greetings at the luncheon which will formally open the convention on Oct. 5. Another highlight on the luncheon program will be an address by Mrs. Arthur H. Vandenberg of Grand Rapids, wife of U. S. Senator Vandenberg, whose topic will be "Observations on Life in Washington."

The program for the convention has been arranged by Mrs. W. D. Henderson of Ann Arbor, state president, assisted by members of the board, and a committee composed of representatives from the Birmingham, Detroit, Dearborn and Wyandotte branches.

Mrs. William E. Eassey, president of the Birmingham branch, Mrs. Fred D. Farrar, chairman of the local convention committee, and other members of the branch here will act as hostesses at the opening luncheon.

Doris Cox Becomes Bride At Ceremony In St. James'

Nuptial Rites Read At Noon In Presence Of Immediate Families

A marriage service uniting Miss Doris Peniston Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard M. Cox of East Maple road, and Forrest Kendall Fowler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Fowler of Harmon avenue, was quietly solemnized Saturday at high noon in St. James' Episcopal church. The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth read the nuptial ceremony.

Miss Cox chose an ensemble in hunter's green, with a small green hat and accessories to match, for her bridal attire. She wore a corsage of white bridal roses. Her only attendant, Miss Catherine Stecker, wore a dark brown ensemble with a brown hat in harmonizing shade. Her flowers were a corsage of Talsimen roses.

Robert J. Muzzy assisted Mr. Fowler as best man. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Donald T. Stanton. Mrs. Cox selected a costume of navy blue crepe with a blue narrow brimmed hat trimmed in white. Mrs. Fowler was attired in dark green crepe with a matching hat.
