GEOLOGIST OPENS
CRANBROOK SERIES

Institute of Science Schedules Free Lecture by University of Michigan Expert
The first of a series of free lectures to be sponsored by the Cranbrook Institute of Science during the 1934-35 season will be given at 8 P. M. Friday by Dr.
W. H. Hobbs, of the University of Michigan, who will speak on "Earthquakes." The lecture will be given in the Cranbrook School auditorium.

Dr. Hobbs, recently retired head of the department of geology at the University, has been teaching, directing expeditions and making important contributions to the field for the past 47 years. His chief work has been concerned with the evolution and significance of earthquakes, glaciers and other interesting phenomena.

The second lecture of the series will be given at 8 P. M. Saturday, Oct. 6, by Dr. Raymond L. Dyer, mammals of the Zoological Park of New York City. His subject will be "Strange Animals I Have Known."

Mrs. Gust Mitchell
Expires, Ill 3 Years

Funeral Services Held
Wednesday at National Royal Oak Township
Following an illness of three years, Mrs. Brenda Belle Mitchell, wife of Gust A. Mitchell of Birmingham, died of cancer of the stomach Monday morning at the home of a sister, Mrs. Helen M.
Webber, of 516 East Broad street, Linden, Mich., where she had been living for the past four months.

Mrs. Mitchell was 61 years of age.
Born in Royal Oak Township, she came to Birmingham when she was 18 years of age. Her husband, Gust, died in Southfield Township ever since.

Surviving, besides the husband and three grandchildren, are two sons, Chester W. of Thirteen Mile road, and Harold W. of Birmingham, and two brothers, John A. Gouj of Washington, Mich., and James W. of Detroit, Mich.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon, Oct. 10, at 2 o'clock, at the funeral home of the Rev. Dr. R. D. Hopkins, pastor of the First Methodist Church, School Street No. 6, in the presence of the S. O. Wylie Bell Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon.

Abandoned Street
Car Used As Class
Room In Southfield

Partly because no other school building is available, and partly because residents of Southfield School District No. 6 are hopeful of "making the state feel ashamed of itself" for failing to provide more adequate school facilities, residents of the district this year are sending their children to classes in an abandoned interurban car at the corner of Telegraph and Twelve Mile roads.

With desks lining both sides of the center aisle, the "school" is being attended by 29 children, with Miss Lenora Reid as their teacher.
The car was given to the district by E. C. Boyars, of Telegraph road.

Although the district has been assured that the PWA would supply the necessary labor for building a new school building, and a resident has offered to loan $7,500 for the material, the state will not guarantee repayment of the loan, and tax delinquency makes the floating of a bond issue impossible. Thus it is a case of the old car or no school at all for the children of Southfield District No. 6.

"It isn't a good idea," Mr. Boynes said. "There isn't enough air space, the ventilation is poor and the children are unable to see the small blackboard we hung against the wall at one end of the car. But it is all we have, and we hope the state will feel ashamed of itself."

S. C. BRAY PROMOTED
BY PONTIAC MOTOR CO.
Sidney C. Bray, 220 Larches drive, has been appointed sales promoter for the Pontiac Motor Company, succeeding L. W.
Slack, resigned. It has been announced by A. W. L. Gilpin, general sales manager. The appointment becomes effective immediately.

Mr. Bray was appointed assistant sales promotion manager, with headquarters in the Pontiac Motor Company building, last May, after serving three years as a member of the central office staff. He was in charge of Pontiac as a district sales representative, and later was employed on the sales promotion assignments.

ORGANIST DEDICATES
ANTHEM TO MARQUIS

An anthem composed by William Hall Miner, organist and choir master at Christ Church Cranbrook, and dedicated to the Rev.
Dr. Samuel S. Marquis, the rector, will be sung by the church choir at the 11 A. M. service this Sunday. The anthem is entitled "The Joy in the Lord, Ye Righteous."

Members of Kiwanis Clubs in Detroit and vicinity are planning to attend in a body the vesper service at 4 P. M. Sunday, at which the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach, assistant rector, will preach.

Former Pastors Who Will Take Part In Presbyterian Church Centennial

Rev. W. C. McKnight

When the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham celebrates the 100th Anniversary of its founding during the week of Oct.
7-12, one person will come all the way from Bismarck, N. D., to participate in the program.

He is the Rev. Floyd E. Logge, former pastor of the local church, who has informed members of the committee planning the centennial that he will welcome the opportunity to renew old acquaintances here and to preach at the service Sunday morning, Oct. 7, which will mark the opening of the celebration.

Mr. Logge, who was pastor here from 1925 to 1929, will be assisted in the service by another former pastor, the Rev. William C.
McKnight, who is now retired and is living in Detroit. Mr. McKnight was pastor of the local church from 1915 to 1922.

Preparations for an "old timers" banquet, scheduled for Tuesday evening, Oct. 9, and planning of the high light of the centennial, are progressing rapidly, according to Mrs. Thomas H.
Nayn, general chairman of the celebration. Mrs. Nayn will also act as grandchild.

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon from the Brown residence, with burial in White Chapel Memorial Cemetery. The Rev. Warner L. Forsyth, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church, officiated.

Men's Club Holds
Tourney, Banquet

The season's activities of the Presbyterian Men's Club were inaugurated Saturday with the annual golf tournament and banquet, held at Elizabeth Lake Golf Club. About 50 men participated.
Robert R. Allen was low scorer in the tournament with an 85. He also won last year's tourney.
Other low scores this year were held by William Denman, 88; Don Clark, 88; Norman Grubbs, 91 and Charles James, 92. A special tourney was won by Ralph Coryell, whose 155 was the highest score ever made in the tourney.

Winners in the kickers handicap were Norman Grubbs, Don Clark, Ed Colcott, H. D. Harris, Glen Kientz, Leonard Brown and Royce Rogers.

Bill Watson, president of the club, presided over the banquet.
Charles S. Kinnison was the golf star.
