SPRING PROGRAM ENDS CLUB YEAR

Boys And Girls Will Take Part In Maypole Dance And Other Festivities

The Saturday Club, the recreational project for children sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women, will close its year Saturday with a special springtime program at the Community House.

There will be the customary activities in the handicraft classes, with the auditorium period as usual from 2:30 to 3 P. M. Mrs.
Marjorie T. Casson will direct the older children in a maypole dance and pantomime of the A. A.
Mills poem, "The King's Accident."

Under the direction of Mrs. J.
F. Bellister, the younger group will present "A Frolic of Spring Lambskins," a simple interpretive dance. Mrs. Earl Bartholomew will play for the dramatic numbers, and Mrs. William C. Byers will be in charge of costumes.

A second part of the program will include two puppet shows, directed by Miss Marjorie Phillips.
The younger children will offer a puppet circus, complete with wild animals and performers.

A fairy story, "The Frog Prince," will be presented by the older members of the club. In the handicraft classes, unfinished work will be completed.

At the first cutting of the club, held last Saturday at Springdale Park, 70 members attended and took part in the outdoor games and contests.

Allied Youth Rally Provides Interest
Roger Toothacker is in charge of the sale of tickets in Birmingham for the Allied Youth Rally and dance to be held in the Masonic Temple ballroom in Detroit Friday evening.

In addition to dancing there will be a floor show, games, and cards.
Loren Longprey and his Melody band will provide music for the dancing.

Among those from Birmingham planning to attend are Misses Betty Shaw, Greta Hoover, Harriet Newman, Mrs. Betty Edward, and Reynolds Griffin.
George Winborn, Roger Toothacker and John Pepperal, Mrs.
Harris, Miss Shave, and Miss Hoover will act as hostesses.
