Pietty Hill D.A.R. Chapter Holds Its First Bridge Tea

A rare lace cloth from Rome, Italy, covered the beautifully appointed tea table for the initial bridge tea given by the newly organized Pietty Hill Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at the Community House Wednesday afternoon.

Matching the rich loveliness of the cloth were the silver tea service, and four silver candle holders bearing yellow tapers. Centering the table was a silver vase in which daffodils, narcissus and pussy willows were gracefully arranged.

YOUNG VIOLINISTS TO GIVE RECITAL

William Gail's String Quartet Will Assist Pupils Of Helen
Atkins

Violin pupils from the Birmingham class of Miss Helen E. Atkins will present a program in her studio in the Birmingham Theatre building next Wednesday at 8 P. M. The students will be assisted by William Gail, who will appear both as soloist and as a member of a string quartet. Personnel of the quartet includes Francis Allen and David Gowans, violins; Harold Stephenson, viola, and Mr. Gail, cello.

The program will open with a violin solo, "Folk Song," by Mitchell Tyson, and will be followed by Richards' "Chanson Orientale," played by Jean Alice Potter. Suzanne Wood will play the "See-Saw Waltz" by Busch. The first number by the quartet will be Beethoven's "Minuet in G." Other numbers on the program will include a duet, "Swing Song," by Sanders, played by Jean Alice Potter and Suzanne Wood; a violin solo, "Son of the Puzos," by Kellar-Bela, played by David Gowans; Gluck's "Andante," by Mr. Allen; "Concerto No. 4," by Seitz, played by Mr. Stephenson, and Mozart's "Romance," played by the quartet.
