

BEAVER LOSES OPENING GAME

Honor Roll For Third Term Announced; Minister Speaks At Assembly

Basketball season opened last Tuesday, Dec. 3 for Big Beaver with a game against Auburn Heights at Danabon, where all the games are played in the Ten Grade School League. Auburn Heights won by the top-sided score of 45-12. Frank Mapes and Charles Bartley each scored six of the points. The squad was composed of Frank Mapes, Charles Bartley, Bob Nancarrow, Francis Snell, Bob Haney, Richard Haney, Tom McGrath and Lyle Russell.

The girls also opened their schedule last week on Thursday night, and also against Auburn Heights. The teams were much more evenly matched, with Auburn Heights winning 17-10. Both teams showed decided lack of experience, but promised to demonstrate some real good things in the future. Their squad was made up of Claudia Thomas, Edith Hughes, Ruth Penney, Irene Corey, Shirley

WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
E. C. Baynes, of Southfield and 12 Mile roads. "Senator Moore's passing is a great loss to Oakland county. He was a very able man. His work on the delinquent tax ten-year moratorium was good, even though his tax cancellation ideas were somewhat unsound. Senator Moore knew that delinquent taxes in closed banks made the payment of many taxes impossible."

Schroeder, Florence Corey, Betty Ellis, Marvel Case and Lauretta Hughes. Points were made by Ruth Penney, 2, Irene Corey 6 and Marvel Case 2. Marvel Case was substituted for Ruth Penney in the last quarter and Lauretta Hughes for Shirley Schroeder in the third quarter.

Honor Roll Names

The Big Beaver honor roll for the third marking period has the following names: Fourth grade—Sally Cramer, Anna Lee Halsey, Marion McCormick, Marjorie Peters, Jean Rosin, George Spanke. Fifth grade—Barbara James, Myranda Meyer, Nora Peters, Thomas Purdy, Dorothy Spanke, Billy Penney. Sixth grade—Viova Papadakis, Doris Somers, Geraldine Vettes, Marian Werner. Seventh grade—Marie Kietlich, Calvin Losey, Helen Witte. Eighth grade—Leon Greenlee, Ida Halsey.

Isabel Halsey, Senator Losey, Francis Snell, Ninth grade—Shirley Cramer, Evelyn Spanke, Helen Tucker, Velma Wilson. Tenth grade—Daisy Arnold, Shirley Cory, Betty Ellis, Dorothy Ewers, Robert Haney, Pearl Mapes, Robert Nancarrow, Ruth Penney.

Those neither absent nor tardy in the second grade last month were Lewis Bartley, Doris Beas, Mary Bruns, Gertrude Christopher, Esther Halsey, Grace Heimke, Barbara Kietlich, Raymond Slater, Chester Losey, Phyllis Malone, Bob McGrath, Jimmy Mouch, Barbara O'Donohue, Dora Purdy, Dale Roberts and Lyle Roberts.

Rev. Balgoyan spoke to the upper grades' assembly program the day before Thanksgiving, telling the boys and girls things that they might be thankful for, even though perhaps they weren't to have turkey for dinner.

$30 On Seal Sale

Approximately $30.00 has been turned in to date on the Tuberculosis Seal Sale.

School closes for Christmas vacation Friday, December 20, and opens again Monday, January 6, 1936.

Edmund Kehn, Calvin Losey and Dawn Sutherland are the only members of the seventh grade to have had 100 in spelling from Nov. 6 to Dec. 9 inclusive.

Frances Campbell of the third grade won the spelling contest for her grade last week. The class has also much enjoyed the story of "Christmas in Other Lands."

The sixth grade won the banner for the best attendance for the last month.

BEAVER SHOW HUGE SUCCESS

Wilma McDaniel's Voted Popular Girl; Boxing Draws Crowd

The Carnival held Friday, Nov. 22, was a huge success. Wilma McDaniel was voted the most popular girl with Dorothy Vettes running a close second. The basket of groceries went to Mrs. Miles of the Sixteen mile road. The boxing matches were probably the most popular events of the evening. The comic match between Harry Ellis, six foot nine, and Calvin Losey (about to his waist), drew much attention and many laughs. The regular matches were won in the following order: Ed Dwight—Eugene Thompson won, from Manley Losey, 12 pound class, Edward Welch won from Herbert Barrett, 150 pound class, "Carney" Yanke won from his brother Bill Yanke. All money from this fund is to be used for athletic purposes.

Moving pictures seemed to be popular in the class rooms last week. The fifth grade made one of the "Land of the Giants" and gave it as part of their carnival show. The second graders invited the first graders to a "Thanksgiving party to see the movie they made for Thanksgiving."

Lydia Odaysky, first grader, is out of school with scarlet fever. Henry Smith left Tuesday to live in Detroit. Nora Peters has been ill for the past few days.

The first graders are making Thanksgiving story booklets made like little Pilgrim boys.

The eighth grade was in charge of the assembly program presented Wednesday. Three short plays written by members of the class, Frances Snell, Senator Losey and Ida Halsey were presented, after which Rev. Balgoyan spoke to the group and songs were sung.

Doris Somers was chairman of the sixth grade Thanksgiving program last week. Those who took part were Viola Papadakis, Ruth Berg, Cecelia Greenlee, Charles Long and Alice Mae Harrison.

The sixth graders are happy because they have finished fractions and are now ready to start another difficult problem, decimals.

The first graders wrote "thank you" notes to the second graders for the nice Thanksgiving party they enjoyed last Wednesday afternoon.

Donald Mooney came to the first grade Monday from the kindergarten of Harding school in Detroit. This brings the class to a total of 38.

Mary Jane Stephens read "The Coming of the Pilgrims" with the fourth grade as audience last Wednesday.

Pupils of the third grade are enjoying books which they are loaning to each other.

The Girls 4-H club met last Monday rather than Thursday to have the help of our Home Demonstration Leader, Mrs. L. MacLeod. Work is progressing nicely, as most of the girls are ready to make their second towel which is to be hemmed on the machine rather than by hand.

BOARD MEETS EARLY TO AVOID CONFLICT

The Birmingham Board of Education, meeting one week ahead of schedule in order to avoid conflict with school Christmas programs, heard Scott Hersey discuss school tax collection Monday evening at Hill school.

The resignation of Mrs. Rachel Cross, clerk of the Board of Education, was submitted and accepted, Supt. G. W. Crandell being instructed to secure another clerk.
