There's one gift you can't go wrong on... Christmas... and that is a box of the best candies. You won't have to go far to find them in Birmingham, as the Wallace Pharmacy has the most complete assortment of both Shrafts and Cecil candies. You can see them in the window. The most attractive packages. There's so much fun in getting a really dainty box of candy. Important! Well, raw-candy! That's how it makes a gift feel to know the rate a big box of Shrafts for Christmas.

Whether your boy has reached the "babe" age or whether he is still propelling himself around on a teddy bear, you will find just the gift for that surplus energy of his at S. S. Woodard's on South Woodward avenue.

For little tots there are the Skipper toys, gorgeous Deluxe racers, scooters, and velocipedes. For the older boy or girl S. S. Woodard's have the stunning new Silver King, stream-lined bicycle. It is made entirely of aluminum, with adjustable seat and handlebars. And by the way, S. S. Woodard's also have Philco radios, in case you're interested.

Did you ever stop to figure out that about one-third of your life is spent in bed? So it is important that you have the most comfortable kind of mattress. Trux Hardware on East Maple avenue have the last word in fine bedding in the Palmer mattress. It is quilted instead of tufted, and made with inner springs that will never sag. It comes in the most attractive colors, lavender, rose and green and is just as lovely to look at as it is durable. Mr. Trux is making a special price on the Palmer until Christmas.

Now that Prosperity is in the ring again, it is good to see that Birmingham has a toe-hold on the old boy. We happened in at the Oldershaw Motor Sales on S. Woodward avenue and found things humming in the Dodge and Plymouth business. Between breaths, and while rushing off two new cars, Mr. Oldershaw confided that he has delivered about 500 percent more new cars since the new models were announced than he had anticipated. And that isn't all, he told us, he has 14 more orders to fill that he is working on right now. But there's always time in his day for a few more customers and a few more deliveries.

How jolly it would be if the whole family had ski suits! Then from the littlest to the biggest including mother, they could all be kids together and enjoy the rides of snow fights, toboggan games or skating parties. At Levinson's Department Store on South Woodward avenue, ski suits can be found for all ages from the toddler up. For the older girl and mother, there are two-piece suits in gay plaids or plain colors, with both turtle necks or reverse styles in corduroy and wool.

If you want to be the belle of the ball from the top of your head to the tip of your toes, pay particular attention to the top of your head! If your hair isn't in condition, you can't expect beauty and luster. No matter how fresh the complexion, and lovely the gown, dry, dull hair will spoil the picture. A word whispered in the ear of the wise girl, will send her to the Harper Method Shop on West Maple avenue. There she will get, not just a washing, but just a massage, but all three in the Harper Method Shampoo.

"The North Wind doth blow, and we shall have snow, and what will the robin do then, poor thing?" runs an old song. But why worry about the robin, he doesn't have to get his feet wet in several inches of snow! It's the bird without wings, who's out of luck. When the snow piles up, you'll find galoshes for every member of the

The most important method is that of roll call and this preserves the vote of each member for the records. Upon a roll call being demanded and agreed to, the clerk proceeds to call the roll, each member answering "aye" or "no" as his name is called. This method of voting requires about forty-five minutes for each roll call.

A quorum in the House of Representatives consists of one over one-half of the membership. In the Committee of the Whole House, 100 members constitute a quorum. Until 1880 the quorum for the Committee of the Whole House was the same as the quorum of the House; but in 1880 it was fixed at the present number.

Community House Gossip

By SATIA V. OSBORNE

No Thursday dinners at the House, the day after Christmas nor the day after New Year's. We should think not! Nobody need dinner, those days.

We think we have our playful fountain quelled at last. Mr. Brelsford and Mr. Chaus have grubbed about in the sub-basement nights and holidays; not to mention some regular work days, crawling thru air ducts, and wading in muddy water when our pump gave up in despair, until at last we know just what the trouble is and also the only practicable remedy for it. Victory has perched upon their banner, our basement is dry and would you believe it, children? the basement rooms are going to be braver. Yes, our unconquerable furnace has been subdued. Mr. Brelsford and our faithful Ben have a combination too strong for it and now heat actually comes out where it should.

Buffy's tail waves happily now when he inspects our company cupboard. We have enough cans to last quite a little while, for emergency work.

Some folks think that a strange combination of other people called "they" is running the Community House. Tain't so, boys and girls. It's "we." If you don't believe it, come to the annual meeting. Come anyway, "they" and "we" would both like to have you.

Time for our weekly statistic. (Query. Can one have a statistic? And if not, why not?) Mrs. Trumbull in the Employment Office answers and makes more than 500 phone calls a month. And if that seems trifling to you, your mind is certainly tuned to the "Larger Things of Life" and we'll have to borrow Mr. Roosevelt's technique of billions before we can impress you.

family at the F. L. Young Shoe Store on North Woodward avenue.

Grace Wilson's Knitting Shop on West Maple avenue is a busy spot. There you meet all the world and her aunt as busy as bees. Knitting, knitting, knitting—like Mme. LaFarge, and never seeming to tire. But then you would, with so many attractive yarns to work with. I'm just that way about a combination wool, imported Shetland Knop. It has such a twirl, it's full of color, or on a solid ground, and the slick thing about it is that you can get material for a skirt, which matches perfectly, and some very swank new shell buttons to top off a right smart sport suit.

SEND THE ECCENTRIC as a CHRISTMAS GIFT. We have printed up some very attractive Gift Cards to herald your gift of a year's subscription, enclosed in "Do Not Open Until Christmas" envelopes. Write to The Eccentric office, or telephone 11 for further information. Adv. 36-37-38
