Illness Fatal

Roy Reynolds

Reynolds was elected in 1932. He was a candidate for the Republican nomination, but was defeated by Under Sheriff Frank Greenan. Five days before the general election, Reynolds was shot and killed while attempting to arrest a bank bandit. Reynolds' name was substituted on the Republican ballot, and he was elected. He was re-elected for a second term last fall. Reynolds was 33 years old. When first elected, then only 31, he was believed to be the youngest sheriff in the United States. Previous to that he had been known as the youngest police officer who served as a patrolman on the Pontiac police force, and as the youngest police chief while heading the Ferndale department. He was Ferndale's chief from 1927 until he was elected sheriff.

Wide Reputation

Both as police officer and sheriff, Reynolds gained a wide reputation as a fearless law enforcing agent. He was particularly well known throughout the state for his opposition to slot machines and other gambling devices and racketeering. He was highly popular with his fellow officers, both in this and other counties.

Wide Reputation

Reynolds was married three times and divorced twice. He leaves two children, Donald, 12, and Jean, seven, by his second wife, and an 18-month-old daughter, Donna Jean, by the third, who is Mrs. Marion Bunde Reynolds. Surviving also are his mother, Mrs. Etta Reynolds McIntosh, of the Oakland County Jail; his father, John Reynolds, of Bloomfield, Mo.; and two brothers, Police Chief Zachary Reynolds of Huntington Woods, and Dallas Reynolds of Elizabeth Lake.

'COMMON SENSE DOCTOR' TO SPEAK

Founder Of Pathfinders Of America Will Address Methodist Men's Forum

J. Franklin Wright, whose name in "Who's Who in America" is followed by the letters "D. C.," denoting "Doctor of Common Sense," will address the Methodist Men's Forum at the Community House at 10 A. M. Sunday on "Character Engineering." The meeting is open to all men of the community.

Mr. Wright

Mr. Wright, who lives in Detroit, is the founder of the Pathfinders of America, an organization which has become famous for its success in building character among prisoners and school children. Born in Iowa of a Quaker mother in 1862, Wright was raised in a Quaker settlement until he was 10 years old, when he was forced to leave school in the 6th grade to help his mother support a family of eight children. He was elected his first job as machinist helper and engine wiper in the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul Railroad round house in Davenport.

Elected in 1932

His Quaker training did not prevent him from contracting some of the vices of his working mates in the round house, but after being warned by a physician that he would die unless he changed his course of living, he developed new habits and multiplies over night by merely coming to the psychologically sound conclusion that habits are made of thinking, and that the good life can be lived by thinking the good life.

He practiced this philosophy successfully on his friends and then spent seven years among prisoners, during which time, he made many of the most hardened criminals into upright, self-respecting citizens. Later, he extended his work to the outer suburbs, and since then the Pathfinders of America have helped shape the character of more than 75,000 school children, in addition to changing their influence among men and women convicted of crime.

$50,000 For Injuries Asked By Chauffeur

The Maxwell Farms Dairy and John Littlejohn, 20 years old, of 1247 Bird avenue, are named defendants in a $50,000 damage suit filed in Oakland County Circuit Court as the result of a traffic accident here Sept. 18.

The Plaintiff is Charles Parker, 42-year-old Negro chauffeur for Walter R. Flannery of Bloomfield Hills, who claims his health has been permanently impaired as the result of a fractured pelvis, brain concussion and other injuries he sustained when the car he was driving was hit by a Maxwell Farms truck, driven by Littlejohn, at the corner of Vinewood and Greenwood avenues.

Parker's car was overturned in the crash, and Hilda and Dick Flannery, children of his employer, suffered minor injuries.

May we say — it again —

More good people, bought good homes in January than in any corresponding period in years.

Which leads us to again predict a greater residential sales activity this spring with advancing prices.
