The usual dancing and refreshments will follow the plays.

'Fashions In Books' Theme Of Address

"Fashions In Books" was the subject of an interesting address given by Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell, of Greenwood avenue, before members of the Birmingham Women's Club at a meeting held Tuesday afternoon at Baldwin Public Library.

Books are mirrors of the fashion of the times in which they were written, Mrs. Bell told her audience. The program was presented by the literature department, with Mrs. Walter L. Moreland as chairman for the day. Mrs. Bell was introduced by Mrs. Fred G. Crawford, one of the hostesses. The program also included a piano solo by Miss Margaret Phillips.

Charles W. Crandell, superintendent of schools, spoke briefly on the school situation, explaining the present financial crisis. The World's Work department of the club will meet next Thursday, Jan. 17, for a Belgian dessert luncheon at 1 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Luther Heacock of Ann street. Mrs. Leland J. Bunyan will speak on "Hitlerism."

Mrs. and Mrs. Otto Huck of Opdyke road will leave Jan. 21 for their home at Miami Beach, Fla., where they will spend the remainder of the winter. They will be accompanied by Emil Huck of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. W. M. Brown of Arden place, and her daughter, Barbara, have returned from New York City, where they spent the holidays.

Mrs. and Mrs. A. T. Collins of Buffalo, who made an extended visit with their son, A. W. Collins and Mrs. Collins of Glenview circle, returned to Buffalo Friday, from where they left the following day to winter at Miami Beach, Fla.

Barbara Jeffery, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Jeffery, Jr.,
