WE HEARD IT SAID BY—
Mrs. George E. A. Hallett, Michigan avenue. "If the Birmingham City Commission is responsible for the collection of school taxes, why hasn't it not done a better job so that our schools are not threatened with early closing? I think that our city treasurer's office has been delinquent in not collecting more taxes than it has."

Wind Runs This Sailless Boat

Here's a new use for a windmill—to run a boat. A power belt running from the mill to the propeller harnesses the power of the wind. Two windmills—one of which has not yet been adjusted—keep the craft on an even keel. It's the invention of a Dallas, Ore. man.

'Cabin' Is Life Preserver

WE HEARD IT SAID BY— Charles Boughner, local businessman: "What we need in this city is an alert, aggressive type of person in the city treasurer's office. Collecting taxes is a business proposition, and, like in any business, that wants to succeed, the city must have capable collection-minded people administering the job."
