

CRANE CAGE TEAM LOSES TO FACULTY

Superior Height, Range Enable Instructors To Win By
15 To 10 Score

The Cranbrook School basketball team opened its 1935 season last Friday evening in an informal game with the Cranbrook faculty and lost, 26 to 15.

The great advantage of the faculty team lay in its height and range, qualities lacking in the variety. Although the game was much closer than the score indicates, the faculty was ahead all the way, leading at the half by 14 to 7.

Boyce Ricketts, center for the faculty, was high scorer with four field goals, while Rod Cox of the faculty and James Van Horn of the variety followed with six points each.

LINCOLN BANQUET TO BE HELD FEB. 14

New York Legislator To Be Chief
Speaker; Fernalde Man Named
President Of Club

Fred Caldwell of Fernalde, former member of the Board of Supervisors, was elected president of the Oakland County Lincoln Republican Club at a meeting of the board of directors in Pontiac Friday afternoon, at which time the date of the club's annual banquet was set for the evening of Feb. 14.

As the new president of the organization, Mr. Caldwell succeeded Howard M. Warner of Farmington, D. G. Castell of Pontiac was elected first vice-president; S. S. Crayth, Keego Harbor, second vice-president; County Clerk Lynn D. Allen, Pontiac, secretary; W. J. Charles Barrett, Pontiac, assistant secretary; County Treasurer Charles Spinks, Waterford, treasurer; and Mrs. William H. Morley, Orchard Lake, assistant treasurer.

The principal speaker at the banquet will be Rep. James W. Wadsworth, Jr., of Genesee, N. Y., former U. S. Senator and a member of the House since 1933. The place for the banquet has not been determined, since the committee has been unable to find an auditorium large enough to accommodate the 1,200 or more persons who are expected to attend.

The following were named to chairmanships of the club's committees:

Bert Norton, Rochester, publicity; Mr. Spinks, finance; Mr. Cronin, banquet; Walter J. Tripp, Milford, election; Lewis C. Jarenski, Pontiac, printing; Gordon MacDougall, Sylvan Lake, decorating; Mrs. Norton, music; Mr. Warner, reception; C. C. Collier, Birmingham, invitations; and George Higgins, Fernalde, program.

JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Candidates for offices in the Adams Junior High School Student Council were given a chance to present their platforms before the student body at an assembly yesterday afternoon. The juniors, high orchestra, under Arnold W. Bernick, also participated in the program.

Three boys were fighting it out at the polls for the presidency of the Baldwin Junior High School Student Council yesterday. Each of the three, George Rounds, Dick Cross and Fred Dye, staged extensive campaigns prior to the election.

Ninth grade students of Adams Junior High School are planning a dance to be held in the school's auditorium Jan. 25. A candy sale held last week by the class netted nearly enough to defray the expenses of the party.

A junior high basketball schedule, which calls for each of the local junior high teams to meet the others once, opened Wednesday afternoon at Barnum, with Barnum meeting Adams. Next Thursday, Baldwin plays Adams at Adams, and the tentative date for the Barnum-Baldwin game is Friday, Jan. 26.

Each school has two teams in the round-robin tournament, one composed of students in the seventh and eighth grades while the other is made up of pupils in the eighth and ninth grades.

Baldwin Public Library Notes

Miss Margaret Hurson, library assistant since the fall of 1929, is leaving this week to take a position in Detroit as librarian for the Jan Handy Picture Service, Inc. She will be succeeded here by Miss Henrietta Lamer, who has assisted in the library from time to time.

New books added to the rental collection this week include: "Skin Deep," by M. C. Phillips, a book about cosmetics sponsored by the Consumers' Research, which provided the material for "100,000,000 Guineas Pigs"; "The White Reef," by Martha Ostenso; "Week-end," by Phil Stong; "With Barnum," by Emilie Loring; "American Family," by Faith Baldwin; "The Cold Journey," by Grace Zaring Stone; "Powder-Smoke Range," by W. C. MacDonald; "The Glory Hole," by G. B. Roney; and "Amorah," by Grace Livingston Hill.
