Saar Now As Part Of Greater Problem

A vivid picture of Germany today, distraight and maddened by personation of Adolf Hiller, and advice to the American citizen to stop being "asp" by railwowing by the nose" were some of the highlights in an address by Alden G. Aley, former college profesfaffiairs, delivered Monday evening at the Community House.

Mr. Alley spoke under auspice of the class in international relafishain, the Birmingham League or Women Voters and the Birming ham Branch of the American Asrolls subject was "The Struggle for the Saar"

The history of the Saar following the Treaty of Versallies, inthe Saar of the Community House.
