Informal Dinners Popular at Club Many noted at tables together preceding Dance at Orchard Lake Informal dinners before the dance at Orchard Lake Country Club Saturday evening seemed to be a generally popular diversion among Birmingham people. Mr. and Mrs. Warren S. Booth were noted at one table with a party of friends, and at another, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. P. John, with 14 guests, were gathered around the festive board.
At a table with Mr. and Mrs. C.
J. Whirl were Mr. and Mrs. E. M.
Schmeyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McLean, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rutherford and Dr. and Mrs. Lynn S. Hershey.
Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Robbins and Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Carter were noted at another table. Mr. and Mrs. C. Theron Van Dusen entertained a group of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alah W. Jolyon.

Local Attorney Weds At Simple Ceremony A quiet wedding ceremony was performed Tuesday afternoon, July 9, at the home of the Rev. L.
Earl Jackson on Cedar drive, when he united in marriage Mrs.
Elmira Bassett Thubry and John Paul Mackay, local attorney. Mrs.
Hazel Lawler attended the bride as matron of honor, and her husband, Richard Lawler, was best man for Mr. Mackay.
After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mackay left on a motor trip to Northern Michigan. They returned Wednesday, and will make their home on Mr. Mackay's farm on Franklin road.
Mrs. J. J. Roura, Jr., and her sister, Miss William H. Jackson, were joint hostesses at the Friday afternoon at Mrs. Jackson's home on Park street. The guests inacted as chaperone, and the guests were Misses Betty Barry, Pearl Parsons, Julia Ellis, Jean Parsons, Helene McBride, Carol Fleming and Alice Flynn of Os-troot.

SOCIAL BRIEFS
Summer seems to be the time for reunions, when many who have left Birmingham for other cities, return to visit their former neighbors and friends. Until several months ago, Mr. and Mrs. F. J.
Tone, Jr., resided at Wing Lake, N. Y., but they arrived Wednesday for a brief visit and to renew old friendships. They will be entertained by both Mr. and Mrs.
J. W. Gillette, Jr., of Wing Lake, and Mr. and Mrs. Waldemar F.
Adams of Martell drive. On their arrival, they went to the Gillette home, and activities at their home will begin today. Mrs. Grace bion drive entertained at a picnic supper, including also as their guests Mr. and Mrs. Shoop, Mr. and Mrs. Combs, Mr. and Mrs. W.

D. Hooper, Jr., Clyde E. Ustick, Mrs. Lane Bishop and Mrs. and Mrs. Clay E. Herbst. Mr. and Mrs.
Shoop were hosts at dinner at Oak-Hills country club on Sunday in honor of Mr. Lewis' birthday.
Mr. Lewis has returned to Chicago, but Mrs. Lewis will be a guest at the Shoop home the remainder of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Meyers of Piquette road have as their guests, Mrs. Meyers' niece, Miss Jane Dilbert of Chicago, and Miss Mary Jane Carpenter of Glendale, Calif.

sible for the first of a series of informal pot-luck suppers, held Sunday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Neal Averill of Yorkshire road. The get-together was a revival of a custom of several years ago when the residents of Yorkshire road met for informal parties at various homes. The James Schermerhorn family are the only members of the first Yorkshire group, but they decided to bring the new neighbors together in the same way.

Houston, Tex., formerly of Birmingham, arrived Monday to be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. F. Sabom of Puritan road.

Elizabeth Brede Is Wed At Pretty Home Ceremony An aisle of Easter lilies and pink gladioli marked the path for the bridal party, Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when Miss Elizabeth Brede, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Brede, Jr., of Oak-Hills country club, was wedded to Mr. Charles E. Van Dusen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Van Dusen, whose home on Balmoral drive, in Palmer Woods, the marriage was solemnized. The Rev. Warner J.
Forsyth of St. James' Episcopal Church officiated, assisted by the Rev. Benjamin Brush.
The service was read in a bow window of the living room, which was barked with palms and tall standards of pink roses and del-phinium, and before which was placed a satin prie-dieu.
The bride wore a charmingly simple gown of white crepe, made with a high collar and neckline. The long tight sleeves were adorned from elbow to wrist, with tiny, sophisticated buttons, which were used also down the back of the gown. Her veil of old lace, a mere inch or two above her face, was arranged in a cap, held in place with a spray of orange blossoms. She carried a formal bouquet of valley lilies.
Miss Jane Brede, who attended her sister, was crowned in aqua marine, marquisette over tulle.
The dress was fashioned with a short jacket and full sleeves, and a full skirt of floor length. Her hat was of dark blue lace, with nothing sharp or delphian.
Mrs. Brede, mother of the bride, chose a gown of dark blue lace, with which she wore wanda or chiffon. Mrs. Van Dusen's gown was of French blue chiffon, and her flowers were also orchids.
David Van Dusen performed the duties of best man for his brother, and Bruce and C. Theron Van Dusen, also brothers, were ushers.
A small reception for relatives and friends followed the ceremony.
An Italian lace cloth adorned the bride's table, which was centered with a silver bowl filled with yellow and white roses. At either end of the table was a tall silver candelabra holding white candles.
For her traveling companion, Mrs.
Van Dusen wore a jacket dress of brown print, with brown straw hat and brown accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Van Dusen, who are on an Eastern motor trip, will make their home at 1000 Whitmore drive, Palmer Woods, on their return.

Mrs. T. E. Paxton of Topeka, Kan., is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs.
Deiler Paxton of Glenary road.
