SERVICE IN ALPENA WILL UNITE COUPLE

Nuptials To Be Read At Noon For Helen Bradford And Frederick Whittlesey

At a ceremony to be read at noon next Wednesday in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil George Bradford of Alpena, Miss Helen Bradford and Frederick Driggs Whittlesey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey of East Hickory Grove road, Bloomfield Hills, will speak their nuptial vows.

Miss Bradford will be attended by Mrs. George H. Whittlesey, her maternal uncle, and Charles K. Latham will perform the duties of best man for Mr. Whittlesey.

Only members of the family will be present at the ceremony and at the reception, which will follow. The young couple plan to have their home at 156 North Street, Birmingham, following a fortnight's wedding journey.

Leaving Tuesday to attend the wedding with Mr. and Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Whittlesey, Mrs. Ruth Mary Whittlesey, and John, Robert and Matthew Whittlesey, Jr.

Fifth International Race Is Won By Orchard Lake Club

Victory rode in the prow of Orchard Lake craft Saturday, when skippers from the Orchard Lake Country Club defeated the Royal Canadian Yacht Club of Toronto in the fifth international race between the two clubs.

The victors returned Monday to report a total score of 87 points against the 82 points of the Canadians. The Orchard Lake delegation was headed by James R. Moe, chairman of the boat committee, and A. J. Underwood, captain of the fleet.

Skippers who participated in the race were, besides Mr. Moe and Mr. Underwood, Hewitt Nally, Spencer Hopkins, V. A. Davidson, Robert F. Grindley, Arthur Griswold, Paul L. Fendell, Frank McPherson, Fred Strong, J. Jack Strong, Waldemar F. Adams, W. D. Crim, Harmon Adams, Cleo Page, Frederick Strong, III, and Bradley Adams.

Because of rough water, only two races were sailed instead of the customary three. Two types of craft were used in both races, 1000 and cat-rigged dinghies. In the first race the sloops tied, with a member of the host club, coming in first in the second. Paul Penfield was in first with a dinghy in the first race, and one of the Canadian sloops was first in the second.

Sunday, the Orchard Lake sailors were guests of the commodore of the Canadian club on his yacht. Plans for another international regatta, to be sailed either late this season or early next, are now under discussion, according to Mr. Underwood. In either case, the race will be sailed in home waters, with the Canadians as guests of the Orchard Lake sailors.
