Cooks Your Complete Meal!!
cakes, pies, cookies, biscuits and souffles, and it will hold half-a-dozen pint jars when canning by the cold pack, hot water bath method. Yet it uses only about as much electricity per hour as an electric toaster, and it is so compact that it can be tucked away in a corner almost anywhere.
Dutch Oven Susan is available in several styles and sizes—one to fit your needs exactly. The medium size model will roast a 10-pound ham, a 6-pound chicken, or a large leg of lamb. The large size will easily accommodate a 15-pound turkey. And there is "Small Sister" Susan, an electric casserole, with a two-quart capacity. See the modern appliance at all Detroit Edison offices, Department Stores and Electrical Dealers.

2 MORE HOMES SOLD IN LOCAL AREA
Further evidence of increased real estate activity in the Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills area is contained in these photographs of homes recently sold by Snyder, Buck and Bennett. The residence shown at the top is at 952 Abbey road and was formerly that of Mrs. Robert S. Preble. It has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thompson of Pleasant Ridge, who expect to take possession next week.
The attractive French-type home shown in the bottom photograph is located in Wendover, on Adams road, just north of Birmingham. It was purchased by H. C. Mower, of California, for investment purposes, and is being occupied by Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Smith.

HALL HEADS NEW NASH DEALERSHIP
LaFayette Cars Also To Be Sold And Serviced in Garage At 1532 South Woodward
Motorists of Birmingham and vicinity will be interested in the announcement of the appointment of the Hall's Sales and Service Company, 1532 South Woodward avenue, as an associate dealer in Nash and LaFayette motor cars. The 1935 models of the two lines are now on display in the sales-rooms of the new organization.
Walter Hall heads the new concern, while Kenneth Collins is in charge of the maintenance division. Both men are well known to local motorists, and have been associated with automotive service in Birmingham for a number of years.
Their new dealership is well equipped to serve Nash and LaFayette owners and buyers. It provides an attractive sales and service headquarters, with a complete display room and service facilities. With the revival of public interest in motor cars, conclusively demonstrated by sales gains during the first six months of this year, I believe the sales and service end of the automobile business offers an excellent investment," said Mr. Hall, commenting on his appointment.
"Our new organization intends to offer Birmingham motorists the finest sales and service facilities we can command. With this policy to guide us, we are certain of ultimate success in our new venture."

What's What at a Glance
WASHINGTON WORLD
By CHARLES P. STEWART
Central Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON, D. C.—Democratic revolt in the House of Representatives is worse than appeared directly after the chamber's anti-administration vote on the utilities bill.
The first revolt was a conservative revolt against the New Deal administration's policies.
It is a badly mixed-up situation—revolt and counter-revolt.
THOSE WHO DIRECT
To begin with, it is no secret that the White House wanted Congressman Sam Rayburn of Texas to be speaker of the House of Representatives at this session of the national legislature. Rayburn is no radical, but he is amenable to executive dictation.
Congressman Joseph W. Byrnes of Tennessee, however, won the speakership.
Congressman William B. Bankhead of Alabama won the Democratic floor leadership, but he fell ill immediately, and, ever since then, Congressman Edward T. Taylor of Colorado has "substituted" for him.
Congressman John J. O'Connor of New York, a Tammanyite won the chairmanship of the representatives committee.
CAN DICTATE
It is well recognized that the speaker, the majority floor leader and the rules committee chairman constitute a trio which can, if it will, dictate most votes in the House of Representatives.
It is fairly to do so, the presumption is strong that it chose not to, or that it bungled.
And the utilities bill vote was heavily against the administration, despite the fact that, reckoning on the basis of party labels, there are nearly 4-to-1 administrationists against "anti's" in the House of Representatives.
Speaker Byrnes voted with the administration, but, as complained by administrationists, did not "actively support" it.
Active Floor Leader Taylor did not vote.
Neither did Chairman O'Connor of the rules committee.
O'CONNOR BLAMED
From the administrationists' standpoint, Taylor and O'Connor certainly seemed indifferent (or vital an issue), even if Byrnes did not.
Against O'Connor administrationists have a further grievance. As chairman of the rules committee, O'Connor would have called, had he wished, for what is known as a "record vote"—a roll call. The administration demanded that an issue be decided by a simple court of undecided individuals, except as they may happen to be more or less accurately "spotted" from the press and spectators' galleries.
Vocational Guidance
"Now, I want Albert to have a thoroughly modern and up-to-date education," says his mother, "including Latin."
"Yes, of course," said the headmaster, "though Latin is, as you know, a dead language."
"Well, all the better. Albert's going to be an undertaker."

Millions For Youth
President Roosevelt has appointed Aubrey Williams, assistant administrator of FERA, to direct his newly-created National Youth Administration, a $350,000,000 program to assist 650,000 persons under 25. "We can ill afford to lose the skill and energy of our young men and women," the President said in announcing the huge plan.

Miss Mary Latham, 1128 Southfield road: "I was the only person not a member of the Board of Education or directly connected with the schools who attended the annual school district meeting last week. Something ought to be done about the attendance at these meetings, or about the meetings themselves."
