GUESTS ATTRACTED BY CLUB LUNCHEON

Bridge Proves Drawing Card In Bringing Many To Orchard Lake

Mrs. Max M. Gilman was in charge of arrangements for the lovely bridge luncheon held at the Orchard Lake Country Club Wednesday, which proved to be quite a magnet for drawing Birmingham women and their guests out to enjoy a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Gilman invited to be her guests, Mrs. Henry Whiting, Mrs. Horace W. Potter, Mrs. John C. Lane, and Mrs. Hugh W. Hitchcock, who is chairman of the women's house committee.

Lunching together in another group were Mrs. W. D. Pittman, Jr., Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders, Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, Mrs. Betty Chapin Buell, Mrs. Carleton Fox and Mrs. C. C. Hood.

Mrs. Leo H. Bartemeier entertained a group from Detroit, including Mrs. Roger Walker, Mrs. Kenneth White, Mrs. Carolyn Pearson and Mrs. Stanley Hamlett, and Mrs. J. A. Doucett of Scarsdale, N. Y.

Mrs. Evan J. Parker of Lakeside drive, and Mrs. J. A. Gilray of Dorchester road also entertained, each being hostess to four guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Knowles and their daughter, Patty, of Surfside road, have returned from a cruise of 15 days in their boat, "Pawidgreen." Barbara Boehm of Dayton, O., will arrive Friday as the guest of Patty Knowles for 10 days.

New Ideas In "Showers" Planned For Bride-Elect

At last someone has thought of something new and original in the way of bridal showers! For the past 10 years (and longer), brides have been showered with guest towels and kitchen gadgets, so that the average bridal menage resembles a church bazaar.

But to Miss Jean Macdonald of "The Pines" on Cranbrook road and to Mrs. J. A. Gilray of Dorchester road, belongs the credit for planning showers that are not only different, but practical in a novel way. Miss Catherine Hinshaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McMillan Hinshaw of Pen Valley road, is the bride-elect who will be honored at these unique affairs. Miss Hinshaw's marriage to Ralph Co. Manuel, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Manuel of Detroit, will be an event of Saturday, Aug. 10.

To return to the showers, Miss Macdonald will be hostess at a "pair" shower for Miss Hinshaw at the Detroit Athletic Club next Thursday. The idea is that guests must bring gifts belonging in pairs, such, for instance, as a pair of hose, containers for salt and pepper, or any of the dozen-and-one things to be found that belong in sets of two.

Invited to this luncheon, besides the honor guest, are the Misses Helen and Nancy Smith, Betty Klingensmith, Mrs. Tom Klingensmith, Miss Katherine Watkins, Miss Valerie Renaud, Miss Barbara Fitch, Miss Winifred Hughes, Miss Mary Louise Hills, Miss Alice Osterman, Miss Frances Dodge, and Miss Barbara Jackson.

Mrs. Gilray had another original thought in planning her party for Miss Hinshaw. She has decided on a breakfast and clothes-press shower, to be given at her home Tuesday, Aug. 6. Everything for keeping the bride's trousseau fresh may be brought as gifts to the clothes-press shower. Garment bags of various types, the ever-useful coat hanger, shoe bags, shoe trees and other accessories will be welcome to the bride who seeks a place for everything in arranging her new home.

In addition to these affairs, Miss Hinshaw will be honored at a luncheon in Detroit today at which Miss Renaud will be hostess, also at the home of Mrs. Leo Henry Bartemeier of Strawberry Hill will entertain members of the bridal party at a buffet supper Sunday, Aug. 4. The guests will include Miss Mary Louise Hills, Miss Nancy Co. John Jenkins Newcomb, John Clayton Pittman and Joseph M. Hinshaw, Jr., brother of the bride-elect.

SOCIAL BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moody of Chesterfield road were hosts at an evening gathering Tuesday in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sabin of Houston, Tex. Besides Mr. and Mrs. Sabin and Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. L. Sabom, their hosts, the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. James, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stroup, Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Chissia, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Barnden, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Johnson and Mrs. Guy W. Jensen. Mr. and Mrs. Moody returned recently from Jamestown, Wis., where they spent a fortnight as guests of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lane.

Nichols, Jr., Joan Baker, Bill Wall and Bob Marks. Afterwards, as the guests of Joan Baker, the party spent the evening dancing at the Bloomfield Hills Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Sabom and Mr. and Mrs. Sabom, who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Gail, left for Chicago Monday morning to friends in the East. They plan to return in a week's time to continue their visit in Birmingham. Motoring East with them were Mrs. Wallace Frost and her son, John, also of Santa Barbara, formerly of Birmingham. The latter were the house guests of Mrs. Edgar Thom during their recent visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Escott and their daughters, the Misses Margaret and Elizabeth, of London, Ont., were guests for the week-end of Mr. and Mrs. William McCallum of East Maple avenue. Mr. and Mrs. McCallum entertained their guests at dinner Saturday evening at the Pine Lake Country Club.

Mrs. Robert Vint of Sunset boulevard opened her grounds for a community picnic to residents of Lathrup Township, last Thursday evening, when she entertained 60 guests.

Mrs. Harold B. Mason of San Jose boulevard invited several small friends of her son, Robert Mason, for the afternoon Tuesday, to join him in celebrating his third birthday. Those invited were Alice Claire Hathaway, Deap and Brandt Craner, Tommy and Marjorie McLean, Bobby Johnson and Joan Wilkinson. Mr. Mason is spending several days this week in Madison, Wis.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Staley of Amberly road is expected to return Saturday from Evanston, Ill., where she has been the guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen C. Staley, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Betzler of Cincinnati, O., are spending a fortnight with Mrs. Betzler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Brown of Greenwood avenue. Roy Brown, Jr., Ian Kilty, John Boiling, and Earl Doherty returned Sunday after a week's trip to Charlevoix and Torch Lake.

Mrs. F. H. Gordon and her son, Elliott Gordon of Washington, D. C., are the guests of another son, Dr. John H. Gordon and Mrs. Gordon of Baldwin avenue. They plan to remain in Birmingham for about 10 days.

Mrs. W. G. Stewart, her mother, Mrs. John Keiser, and her small daughter, Nancy Stewart, all of Pittsburgh, Pa., are the house guests of Mrs. D. C. Van Pelt of Bloomfield Village. Mrs. Van Pelt and her guests plan to leave Aug. 8 to visit her mother, Mrs. Peter Birrel, at her summer home at Alden, Mich. Mrs. Van Pelt's sons, Donald and David, arrived at their grandmother's home Wednesday after a sojourn at camp, where they will await their mother and her guests.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bailey of East Long Lake road are sojourning at Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. G. W. J. Linton of Yarmouth road will leave Friday to spend the week-end with her mother, Mrs. E. F. Hoffman at Lafayette, Ind.

Mrs. Alfred H. Wahl of Purdy street has returned from a month's visit in Springfield, Mo., where she was the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Wahl.

When Camp Al-Gon-Quin near Burt Lake holds its open house for parents this week-end, there will be a representative delegation from Birmingham motoring up to visit the young campers. Those planning to make the trip are Mr. and Mrs. Max M. Gilman, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. McKinney, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Whiting, and Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders.
