PLANS REVEALED BY BRIDE-ELECT

Mary Constance Prince To Wed
Herbert Henchel At Church
Rites

A coming wedding in which the younger circles in Birmingham are interested is that of Miss Mary Constance Prince, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Alvin Charles Prince of East Windsor, Ont., and Herbert Grand Henchel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert H. Henchel of Argyle drive. The marriage will be solemnized Saturday, June 22, in St. Rose de Lima Church of Riverside, Ont.

Mrs. Prince has asked Mrs. Charles Turnbull to be her matron of honor, and her bridesmaids will be the Misses Eleanor Henchel, Janet Gow and Shirley Campbell. John Hornaby of Bloomfield Hills will perform the duties of best man for Mr. Henchel, and seating the guests will be Jack Prince, Ronald Campbell and Charles Turnbull.

A reception at the bride's home will follow the ceremony. After a wedding journey, Mr. and Mrs. Henchel will make their home on Whitmore road.

As a bride-elect, Miss Prince has been the most guest at numerous pre-nuptial affairs given by her many friends in the border cities.

Nuptials Are Read At Simple Service

A quiet wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. R. D. Hopkins at the rectory of the M. E. Church Saturday morning at 10 o'clock, when Miss E. L. Hoyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hoyer of Townsend street, became the bride of J. Solway Hay, son of Mrs. L. Hay of Highland Park.

Miss Ethel Parker of Essex, Ont., was the bride's only attendant, and Garfield Hay was best man for his brother. Following the ceremony, Mrs. Hay, mother of the bridegroom, entertained at dinner for the bridal party at Hedges Wigwam.

After a wedding journey to the Thousand Islands, Mr. and Mrs. Hay will reside in Royal Oak.

New Officers Chosen By M. E. Women's Society

Mrs. Joseph R. Dalley was elected president of the Women's Society of the M. E. Church at a recent meeting. Mrs. Melvin Deery is the new vice-president, Mrs. E. N. Allen is the secretary, and Mrs. George G. Steadman is the new treasurer.

Mrs. John H. Bosc was elected local president of the organization. Mrs. Marice Lowman was chosen president of the home missionary group, and Mrs. Edwin Housack was named president of the foreign missionary group. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Fred W. Johnson of Adams road.

Mrs. H. A. Dick of Wellesley drive and Mrs. W. R. Tracy of Lone Pine road entertained 11 members of their bridge group at luncheon at Orchard Lake Country Club Tuesday in honor of Mrs. George F. Salisbury and Mrs. Warren S. Hillis of Kenilworth, Ill., who are the guests of their sister, Mrs. Irving B. Bates of Lone Pine road. Betty Dick returned Saturday from St. Mary's Academy at Monroe, where she is a student.

Nuptial Vows Are Spoken At Lovely Home Ceremony

Tall standards of white garden flowers against a background of purple flowers in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Colman Murray, where their daughter, Miss Frances Stockton Murray, and Lorne Taylor McDonald, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bart A. McDonald of Bronxville, N. Y., spoke their nuptial vows.

The same white flowers that filled the standards—larkspur, snapdragons, peonies, gladioli, and others—were used also in large white bows placed upon the mantel, from which trailing greens fell to the floor, intermingling with the other foliage. On either side of the white satin cushions, placed for the bride couple, were tall wrought-iron candelabra bearing lighted tapers.

Before this delightful improvised altar, the Rev. W. Hamilton Aulenbach read the nuptial service at 8 o'clock, the bride and groom.

Dignified Gown

The aisle through which the bride passed from the stairway to the altar, was marked by wrought iron aisle posts, supporting white satin ribbons. Graceful and dignified was Miss Murray's gown of heavy ivory satin, fashioned on clearest French lines. The high neckline was distinguished by a trim turtleneck collar, the long, tight sleeves were in keeping with the simplicity of the gown.

Diminutive white satin buttons extended from the neck to the waistline on the back of the bodice. The graceful skirt fell clinging to the knees, then flared to the floor, ending in a long train. A simple white tulle veil, held in place by a diamond clip, extended the full length of the train. Miss Murray carried an arm bouquet of valley lilies and white larkspur.

3 SINGERS TO BE HEARD IN CONCERT

Students of Frederick A. Protheroe Will Take Part In Recital

Three Birmingham singers will take part in an artists' recital to be given by the students of Frederick A. Protheroe of the Detroit Institute of Musical Art, in the Auditorium of the Women's City Club, Monday at 8:15 P. M.

The artists are Miss Margaret Strand, Mrs. H. Victor Spike and Miss Florence Holliday. Miss Strand will sing the selections, including "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot.

Mrs. Spike will be heard in two numbers, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot, "L'Amour de moi" by Tiersot.

Mrs. Holliday will offer "Je ne puis pas" from Gounod's "Faust."
