SCHOOL BOARD

DRUNKEN DRIVER FINED IN CRASH

Seething Story Of Love And Hate Begins In Next Week's Eccentric

H.T. ELLERBY'S Annual Cranbrook Summer FATE IN DOUBT Conference Opens Sunday

Dismissal From Public Trust Commission Believed Asked By Toy

INCREASE SHOWN -IN SCHOOL CENSUS

TOWNSEND TRAFFIC CONTROL TO STOP AT BATES

HOMESTEADING New Gift Revealed

DAKLAND SITE CHOSEN

Commission Acts After Hackett Tells Of Gambling At Legion Attraction

Construction Activ Reaches Highest Po Since April, 1931

$63,500 BEING SPENT

More building activity is in evidence in Birmingham today than at any time since April, 1931, it was reported building inspector. In the past two weeks, Mr. Egbert has issued permits for the erection of seven building inspector, in the past two weeks, Mr. Egbert has issued permits for the erection of seven buildings representing a total construction cost of $57,500, and application has been made for another permit for a 86,000 residence.

This total is greater than the entire amounts spent for new building purposes here in either 1932, 1933, or 1934, Building performance in either 1932, and 1934, Building performance in either 1932, 1933, or 1934, Building performance in either 1934, Building perf

DIRECTORS OF NEW FSLA TO BE NAMED

Tuesday: Charter Arvives
Directors of the new Himmigham
Federal Savings and Loan Associathe stockholders (next Tuesday might, it has beer announced by Mrs. Hazel E. Layder, secretarytreasurer of the Oakland Building of which are to be gradually transferred to the new institution.
The directors will elect their own officers, and by-laws for the Assomeeting, Mrs. Lawder said. Officers and directors' of the Oakland Building and Loan Association will be ties in the new Institution, although the identities of, the two organizations will be kept sephrate until the conversion of assets is com-

Phone 11

The Birmingham Eccentric

BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

PURELY PERSONAL