PUPILS ARE HEARD IN PIANO RECITALS

Mrs. Nell Presents Two Groups Of Students In June Programs

Mrs. Helen Wagner Neff of Park street recently presented two groups of pupils in recitals at her home. Friday evening, a special program was offered by four-advanced students, Dick Brandt, Ward Cruickshank, Dick Neerken, and George DeGraff. Their program included a variety of selections by such composers as Haydn, MacDowell, Mozart, Schumann, Brahms, Grieg, Schubert and Tchaikovsky.

Another group of pupils was heard in recital Wednesday evening. These were Eleanor Penfold, Dick Vailie, Ann Ballentine, Angus Melay, Bobby White, Honey Mayo White and Marilyn White, Gordon Saunders, Bobby Norton, Huska Peterson, Ellen Ford, Ann Parky, Dick Brandt, Ward Cruickshank, George DeGraff and Dick Neerken.

Helen Bradford To Wed At Midsummer Nuptials

Miss Helen Bradford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil George Bradford of Alpena, has chosen Wednesday, July 24, as the date of her marriage to Frederick Drizig Whittlesey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew R. Whittlesey of Bloomfield Hills.

The wedding will be solemnized at noon at the home of the bride's parents in Alpena. Mrs. George H. Whittlesey will attend Miss Bradford as matron of honor, and Charles K. Latham of Southfield will be best man for Mr. Whittlesey. Only members of the immediate family will attend the ceremony and the reception that will follow. Mr. Whittlesey and his bride plan to reside in Birmingham.

Miss Bradford will leave about July 1 for Alpena, where she will remain until her marriage. Prior to her departure, and in honor of her approaching nuptials, two interesting affairs have been planned for this week.

Mrs. Walter L. Forsyth and Mrs. L. M. Baker will be joint hostesses at a luncheon and miscellaneous shower to be given at Mrs. Forsyth's home on Wimbledon drive. Guests at the luncheon will include Mrs. Bradford, mother of the bride-elect, who arrived Wednesday to make a brief visit with her daughter; Mrs. Matthew B. Whittlesey, Mrs. George H. Whittlesey, Mrs. Maybelle Johnston, Miss Phyllis Reynolds, Miss Jessie Winter, Miss Doris Fitch, Mrs. Clarence Vliet, Jr., Mrs. L. C. Myer, Mrs. Clark Brenner, Miss Mary Latham, Mrs. A. C. Utter, Mrs. Donald Ray, and from Detroit, Mrs. Ralph Gillert and Mrs. Joseph Vance, Jr.

Mrs. Utter and her daughter, Mrs. Vliet, will be hosts at a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Bradford on Saturday at 12 o'clock.

The guests will include, besides the bride-elect, Mrs. Bradford, Mr. M. H. Whittlesey, Mrs. George H. Whittlesey, Miss Doris Fitch, and Miss Lathrop, daughter of Orlando, Fla., who is the guest of her sister, Mrs. M. B. Whittlesey.

CAPTAINS NAMED FOR JUNIOR SALE

Mrs. Darmstadter To Give Tea For Team Heads In St. Joseph's Hospital Benefit

Miss Florence Skak, chairman for Birmingham, has announced the names of captains who will direct teams Saturday, June 29, when the Junior Auxiliary of St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Pontiac will take charge of the sale of tags in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills and the neighboring country clubs.

Proceeds from the sale will be used for partial payment of an X-ray therapy apparatus, which is installed in the hospital for clinical work in the treatment of cancer.

Captains assisting Miss Skak in her territory include Mrs. John E. MacManus, Mrs. Betty Chapin Buell, Miss Elsie Taylor, Mrs. Marion Singer, Miss Evelyn Perry, Mrs. Otto Kern, Miss Betty Gaultier, Miss Jeanne Pauli, and Mrs. A. M. Gault. Miss Jane Warrington is assisting Miss Skak in directing the Birmingham arrangements. Each captain will appoint 10 workers to assist on her team. Mrs. Carl J. Darmstadter of Madison road will assist the captains at a tea at her home Monday afternoon, when plans will be completed for the sale.

Oakland Hills Plans Novel 'Gypsy' Bridge

Sometimes it seems as if life were just one bridge luncheon after another. But Oakland Hills Country Club will offer its members and guests a new variety in the "Gypsy" bridge luncheon to be held at the club next Wednesday.

Those who are infatigable in the mysteries of various types of readings will circulate among the guests, ready to search the future as revealed in tea leaves, crystal balls, the palm and cards. Appropriate gypsy music will help to create the proper atmosphere. For those playing bridge, there will be door and table prizes.

Mrs. George H. Quigley is chairman of arrangements, assisted by Mrs. Nell McGinn and Mrs. C. C. Whitlock.

Ray Gersell and his orchestra will furnish the music for the dinner-dance to be held at the club Saturday evening. There will also be a floor show.
