'WHITE ELEPHANTS' SOUGHT AS PRIZES

Women Asked To Donate Articles For A. A. U. W. Bridge And Style Show

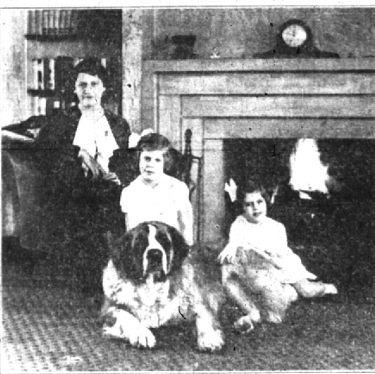

Have you a "white elephant" under your roof?
Hoarders of stored-away knick-knacks will have an opportunity to ransack their homes in search of bridge prizes for the fashion show and bridge tea, which will be sponsored by the Birmingham Branch of the American Association of University Women next Wednesday at the Community House.

The "white elephant" plan has been adopted for securing prizes for the 50 tables, and all women who wish to offer prizes are invited to donate.

Mrs. H. S. Burlingame is chairman of the "white elephant" committee, assisted by Mrs. W. D. Hooper, Jr., Mrs. Franklin Fricker and Mrs. Everett Judson. Those wishing to contribute prizes are asked to wrap the articles and give them to some member of the committee.

Bridge at 1:30 P. M. will be followed by tea and a style show of models from the J. L. Hudson Company. Mrs. Lewis B. Sappington is chairman of the style show, and Mrs. William H. Knowles is general chairman. Mrs. George H. Averill is chairman of arrangements, and Mrs. Lewis E. Daniels is in charge of the tea.
