MUST WOMEN PAY

THE PRICE OF FALSE NOTIONS ABOUT WATER HEATING?

If you think any old-fashioned or makeshift methods of water heating actually afford a saving over modern AUTOMATIC gas water heating, you owe it to both yourself and pocketbook to investigate this special offer.

No man wants his wife to spend her health and appearance on needless drudgery. And yet thousands of women are doing just that... climbing stairs, shoveling fuel, wasting hours on wholly unnecessary housework. What is worse, they do not have hot water when needed, nor do they save any money by such painful sacrifice. What a price to pay for false notions of water heating economy!

Zebra Influence

Strikingly original is this evening gown of black and white striped silk, displayed by Maxine Jennings, model. A huge pleated bow of the frock material, fastened with a bow of black velvet ribbon, is a feature. The gown is cut entirely backless with the new, long-waisted effect, and the skirt flares into soft folds halfway between hip and knee.
